Paradiso

art kolonija

Likovna kolonija Paradiso bilježi ove godine trinaest ljeta uspješne organizatorske i izložbene djelatnosti apostrofirajući važnost umjetničkog djelovanja u predstavljanju i promociji vlastite zemlje.

Art kolonija Paradiso pažljivo je i promišljen i umjetnički angažiran projekt koji podrazumijeva razmjenu radnih i egzistencijalnih iskustava domaćih i stranih likovnih umjetnika povezujući tako i paralelno predstavljajući hrvatsku i inozemnu recentnu likovnu produkciju s ciljem da interakcijom raznorodnih stilskih, ikonoloških i kulturoloških izričaja umjetničkoj sceni pridruži jednu širu dimenziju uključujući refleksije o iskustvima suvremene likovne umjetnosti hrvatskih, europskih i svjetskih umjetnika, ali i ukazujući na druge bitne segmente poput prezentacije u izložbenim prostorima ili mogućnosti njezine prezentacije kao neizostavnog dijela turističke ponude vlastite zemlje. A u razvoju i plasirajući umjetnosti važno je i njezino pozicioniranje u širem, međunarodnom kontekstu. Stoga se kolonija ne ograničava na hrvatsku likovnu produkciju, organizira susrete i djelovanja europskih i svjetskih stvaralača te izložbe kojima galerija Makek-Paradiso predstavlja radevine nastale na koloniji diljem Europe. Pa iako internacionalno orijentiran, ovaj umjetnički projekt obilježen je mjestom svog događanja, otokom i gradom Rabom, genius lociem koji svojim povijesno-arhitektonskim lokacijama, umjetničkim artefaktima, čarobnom aromi i geo-kulturnom pozicijom markira suvremeni kulturni kontekst i ovakvim umjetničkim događajem kakav je Likovna kolonija Paradiso. I ove godine djelujući kroz tri saziva upriličila je i tri izložbe, a korak dalje, kojim upoznaje širu javnost s nastalom produkcijom na Rabu, izložba je u galeriji Makek, u Zagrebu kojom se publici već tradicionalno predstavlja izbor radevine, koncentrirajući se uvijek na novi segment ovog okupljanja kojemu je u bazi dosta dosta prezentacija hrvatske i europske umjetnosti kao namjera obogaćivanja kulturne i umjetničke ponude Hrvatske. Izložbe objedinjuju umjetnike različitog likovnog izraza koji su uvjetovani zajednički rad prihvatali kao izazov i priliku za interakcijama koje otvaraju mogućnosti propitivanja osobnih stvaralačkih dosega. Nastala djela ukazuju na kreativnost kojom umjetnici odgovaraju na postavljene uvjete rada, na djelovanje izvan vlastitog ateljea, djelovanje u zajedničkom prostoru,... Skupno izlaganje uvijek je zanimljiv projekt koji naglašava raznolikost pristupa likovnom oblikovanju koji nije određen kulturološkim, društveno-sociološkim ili religioznim razlikama, već osebujnim umjetničkim individualnostima, bogatstvom ikonoloških i morfoloških izričaja, novim „pogledima“ na stvarnost, društvo i umjetnost koji su karakteristika umjetničkog stvaranja. Umjetnici su ljudi koji drugačije gledaju na svijet. Njihova umjetnost ih povezuje čineći ih pripadnicima istog „izuzetnog roda“ u kojem nema osjećaja različitosti osim one stvaralačke.

Svoj jedinstveni „pogled“ na Rabu uputilo je ove godine trideset i troje umjetnika iz jedanaest zemalja. Njih desetero na ovogodišnjem prvom, svibanjskom sazivu transponiralo je svoje doživljaje u slikarska platna koja postaju tako svjedocima uživanja i nadahnuća, ljepote i snage neodoljivog rapskoga raja.

Na Rabu u svibnju stvaraju: Miloš Prekop, Robert Almaši i Chuares iz Slovačke, Alexander Trifonov, Elena Rzhevskaya i Sergey Chesnokov-Ladyzhenski iz Rusije, Gerd Messmann iz Njemačke te Ljiljana Barković, Aleksandar Bezinović i Sebastijan Dračić iz Hrvatske.

Milošu Prekopu i ovaj put inspiracija je žena, motiv kojim se referira na određene „ikone“ povijesti umjetnosti. Deindividualizirana figura skulpturalno tretirana, u kojoj iščitavamo Prekopovu opsесiju afričkim maskama, i omage Picassou ili, ovaj put ipak Vermeru. „Žena na plaži“ s bisernom ogrlicom kao referenca na „Djevojku s bisernom naušnicom“.

Slaganje skulpturalnih formi unutar slike, gradnja plohami čiste boje, jasno izražena geometrija i strukturalni tretman svjetlom karakteristike su slike Alexandera Trifonova, predstavnika ruskog receptualizma, kojom istražuje dubinske zakonitosti likovnih sredstava pružajući nam višežnačna iščitavanja i u kojoj se ovaj put uz kubusne forme pojavljuju i natruhe organskog - zoomorfnha pticolika obličja.

Robert Almaši nadahnute prirodom i ženskom ljepotom zamijenio je reduciranim geometrijom koja u svom nazivu nosi naznake prostornog, otvarajući zanimljivu perspektivu i govor temeljnih boja, crne, bijele i crvene te odmjereno ekspresivnog bujanja unutar omeđenih polja slike.

Slika bazirana na geometrijskoj kompoziciji prisutna je i kod Ljiljane Barković. Ona je polje naglašavanja plastičkih i izražajnih sredstava, valoriziranja vrijednosti prirodnih svojstava linije, (ob)lika i ploha te njihovih kombinacija i odnosa. Istražuje oblike u njihovim kolorističkim i perspektivnim mijenama, multiplicirajući ih i modificirajući do asocijativne prepoznatljivosti („Jedra“).

Elena Rzhevskaya otvorena je također geometriji. Njezini modeli likovnog izražavanja u duhu su umjetničkih tendencija izgrađenih na programima i djelovanjima baziranim na apstraktnom izrazu. Zanimljivim rasterom isprepletenih linija koje se kreću u svim smjerovima određuje temeljne kompozicijske silnice, intenzivirajući optički doživljaj te propitujući mogućnosti kretanja i pulsiranja formi zadržavajući se na odnosima boja, linijskih smjernica i prostornosti.

Zanimljiva geometrijska igra unutar figurativnog izraza odlika je i slike Sergeya Chesnokova-Ladyzhenskog, predstavnika ruskog postmodernizma koji svoju likovnu egzistenciju gradi na temeljima konstruktivizma, kubizma i geometrije. U licu njegovog aktera kriju se prepoznatljivi rapski toposi, arhitektonski elementi kojima slaže centralnu antropo formu.

Elementi ljudskosti dadu se iščitati i sa slike slovačkog autora pseudonima Chuares. Njemu je slikarska podloga mjesto eksperimentiranja likovnom materijom i njenim djelovanjem. Bazirana na elementarnom i primarnom, reaktiviranje je materijalnosti ljudskog bića i njegove koničnosti u beskonačnosti ljudske evolucije, dana jasnim naznakama – multipliciranom lubanjom, prepoznatljivim morfološkim znakom u izričaju ovog mladog, ali likovno potentnog slikara.

A zasićenost simbolima, znakovima i rebusima za čije je iščitavanje potrebno poznavanje posebnih kodova, prisutna je i u nadrealnim, metafizičkim prostorima slike Aleksandra Bezinovića. Njegova likovna kako i egzistencijalna promišljanja određuju naša suvremenost. Robovanje medijima i idolopoklonstvo lažnim bogovima vizualizirano je u slici uspostavom simboličkih sustava nadopunjavajući glavni motiv, sakralni rapski objekt, simbolima i znakovima - kotama koje markiraju prostor slike racionalizirajući imaginarnost prikazane arhitekture. Likovni svijet Sebastijana Dračića prostor je pun iščitljivih simbola, jasnih, realnih prirodnih prostora čija egzistencija pripada nekom drugom vremenu. To su zapravo mentalni prostori dimenzija nepristupačnih i skustvenim osjetilima, već mogućnostima spoznaje intuicijom i znanjem o iskonskom i izvornom univerzumu. Konkretni pejzaž kao mjesto poetskih, lirske reminiscencije odabire za svoje slike i Gerd Messmann. Ekspresija temeljnih kolora kontrolirana je crtežom kojim autor naznačuje figurativnu formu, dok boja akcentira svjetlo, transparentnost vode, nemir u visokim krošnjama, mir u statičnosti arhitekture.

Druga ovogodišnja izložba na kojoj su predstavljeni radovi nastali na trideset i četvrtom sazivu dogodila se, već tradicionalno, u lipnju. Na njoj su se predstavile izuzetne europske i hrvatske likovne osobnosti: uvijek dobrodošli talijanski umjetnici Massimo Lomi i Valentino Moradei Gabbielli, Džeko Hodžić i Admira Bradarić iz Bosne i Hercegovine, Shyqri Gjurkaj iz Švedske, Inna Romanova iz Rusije, Nataša Milovančev iz Makedonije te Smiljana Šafarčić, Nikolina Ivezić, Marina Stoponja, Stipan Tadić i Hrvoje Dumančić iz Hrvatske.

U potrazi za svojim motivom Massimo Lomi nije odmakao daleko od Raba. Sada odabire Jablanac utiskujući njegovu prepoznatljivu topologiju u drvenu podlogu koja i ovaj put odiše toplinom i pomalo već zaboravljenom ljepotom.

Harmoniju tradicije i suvremenosti u pristupu tretiranja likovne forme daje nam Valentino Moradei Gabbielli. Ljudska figura konstanta je njegovog skulptorskog propitivanja dana sada u pročišćenoj i pojednostavljenoj formi, oštřih rubova, gotovo kubističkog tretiranja. Meditativna i astralna u tom bijelom gipsu, „beskonačna“ kako joj i samo ime kaže.

A glinu kao podatnu materiju odabrali su pak Marina Stoponja i Hrvoje Dumančić. On u veličanju ljepote i snage muškog principa otjelovljenog u motivu konja, njegovoj izričajnoj konstanti. Terakota sabijene snage u mužjačkom tijelu rasnog „hrvatskog Posavca“, jednostavne modelacije u zatvorenom volumenu kolorirane rapsko plavom i patinirane u rapskome moru.

Marina Stoponja odabire tamnu terakotu za materijal svog jastuka. Na toj podatnoj „majci zemlji“ klijia život, svijetli se brončano zrno graha, simbol plodnosti, rasta, zrno znanja koje vabi na dodir, akcentira prostor dobro odmijerenim kontrastom tamnog i svijetlog, matirajućeg i reflektirajućeg, toplog i hladnog. Svoje jastuke objedinila je u ciklusu „Pillow talk“ unutar kojeg preispituje, povodeći se uvijek primarno za idejom, korespondenciju umjetnika i konzumenata u galerijskom prostoru.

Artefakti prirode kao elementi iskonskog, primordijalnog, kao tragovi u vremenu i prostoru nalaze se u slici švedskog likovnog gosta Shyqri Gjurkaja. Život u novoj zemlji, ovome kosovskom slikaru, omogućio je razumijevanje „govora“ kamena i stijena. Razumijevanje fascinacije tom prirodnom materijom i njezine važnosti u mnogim kulturama (obelisci, stečci, Stonehenge,...). Inspiriran medijem tog „svetog kamenja“ stvara likovni izmišljeni svijet u kojem skladno korespondiraju suprotnosti: stvarno i irealno, racionalno i iracionalno, moguće i nemoguće. Snažna materijalnost slike akcentirana neslikarskim materijalima i voluminoznošću naslikana kamenja, principi podslikanjavanja u kojima svaki sloj slike emanira drugačijim životom govore u prilog originalnosti i majstorstvu ovog autora.

Još jedno izuzetno likovno ime pohodilo je likovnu koloniju u lipnju. Džeko Hodžić značajno je ime unutar bosansko-hercegovačkog likovnog korpusa, homo univerzialis, kipar, slikač, crtač, organizator likovnih manifestacija, učitelj i kulturni radnik. Predstavio se slikom iz ciklusa „Bijele baštne“, vlastitim odgovorom za nasušnim drugačnjim sutra, na potrebu za novim, boljim danima. Bjelinom opredmećenom svjetlošću koja determinira nova značenja koja prepoznajemo kao autorove osobne civilizacijske, kulturne i religijske, nadasve životne znakove, simbole ljudskog postojanja. Njegova slika polje je oblikovne igre u odnosima vidljivog i tek naznačenog reljefnog crteža unutar apsolutne bjeline.

Za igrom svjetline i kolorističke materije posegnula je i Smiljana Šafarić. Građu njezine slike čine homogenizirani, djelomično reljefni pigmenti prevladavajuće bijele koju podslikava i uslojava aplicirajući u nju neslikarski materijal - karton, kojim otvara mogućnosti likovnog propitivanja na razini kompozicija – struktura. Njezin „Prozor“ ulaz je u poetski prostor, u „unutrašnju sliku“ vlastitog doživljaja prenesenog u oslobođenu materiju.

A našem pogledu otvara svoje „Poetske prostore“ i Nataša Milovančev. Oni su koncentracija likovnih promišljanja kojima artikulira čistoću analitičkog i redukcionističkog pristupa prostoru u duhu geometrijske rekonstrukcije stvarnosti i njezinog ponovnog sintetiziranja u polju slike.

Rapski eksterijer kojeg „gledamo“ u Natašinoj slici na posve drugačiji način inspirira mладог Stipana Tadića. Prepuštenost uživanju, ljenčarenju na rapskoj plaži u ozračju neodoljive mediteranske arije tematska su okosnica Tadićeva „Summer Breeze“, a on, kako sam kaže, svaki događaj, osobu i situaciju može staviti u kontekst umjetnički važnog, učiniti ju poznatom, trendom, važnim trenutkom zabilježenim u povjesno-umjetnički korpus. On svoju ljetnu igru ironijskih i parodijskih naznaka danih u samom naslovu djela, tretira u potpunosti „slikarski“ iskazujući pravi umjetnički aspekt stvaralačkog bića izgrađenog na temeljima tradicionalnog slikarstva.

Asocijacijama ljetnog uživanja, mora, plaža, morske flore i faune obiluje i rad mlade Admire Bradarić. Kontrastom jasne konturne linije i osnovnim bojama tretiranih ploha demonstrira svoj umjetnički iskaz kao nezaboravno iskustvo u kojem je sublimirala svoj grafičko-slikarski talent.

Neodoljivost Mediterana, zov morskih bespuća opredmećenih u poetsku inspiraciju „Sireninih pisama“, virtuoznost osobnog slikarskog rukopisa kojim gradi nostalgiju priču aplicirajući na klasičnu slikarsku podlogu zlatne listiće, ugrevavajući u njenu površinu znak kao prepoznatljiv kod - to je figurativni uradak Inne Romanove u kojem se isprepliću elementi dekorativnog (secesijskog) i materijalskog slikarstva.

Nije sirena, ali je dokona pin-up djevojka koja se odmara zanosno nam pozirajući i vabeći nas na erotsku igru. To je žena Nikoline Ivezić koje se ova autorica na odriče niti na Rabu. Njena raskošna heroina izrađena tehnikom obojenog stiropora akcentirana metalnim svjetlećim okvirom, simbol je stereotipa koje nam nameće društvo, simbol poimanja žene kao „seksualnog objekta“. Zanimljivo je da je sada toj perperciji Nikolina izložila samu sebe, jer slika je autoportret.

A trideset i petim, ovogodišnjim trećim (zapravo četvrtim računajući slovačku koloniju), rujanskim sazivom dominiraju zanimljiva inozemna i hrvatska imena. Mladi umjetnici i oni zreliji, već potvrđeni koji su zajedničkim interakcijama svojih umjetničkih osobnosti stvorili zanimljivu, plodnu produkciju predstavivši je na ovogodišnjoj posljednjoj rapskoj izložbi. Georg Ozory iz Njemačke, japski umjetnik Makoto iz Italije, Simon Kajtma i Rajko Čuber iz Slovenije, Edvin Granulo iz Bosne i Hercegovine, Milena Mladenova iz Bugarske, Sanja Sašo, Martina Grlić, Stjepan Šandrk, Denis Krašović i Zlatko Kauzlaric Atač iz Hrvatske.

Strukturalna gradnja jednostavnim kubusima i koloristički tretiranim plohamama okupacija je mađarskog umjetnika sa stalnom adresom u Njemačkoj Georga Ozorya. Njegova slika producira geometrijsku formu u kojoj propituje odnose boja i oblika, gradi svoju „Kulu snova“ temeljnim likovnim sredstvima, u klasičnom mediju (slikarskom platnu) i materijalu (akril i akvarel).

U „klasičnom“ mediju slike izražava se i Martina Grlić. No, njezini predlošci su konkretni, asimilirani u sliku kao elementi čiste narativnosti, idealizirane priče američkog „doba izobilja“ 50-ih god, 20.st., koji nam otkrivaju lice i naličje svijeta koji u stvorenom prividu sigurnosti neprestano imputira strah (od nuklearnih katastrofa, terorizma,...). Motive pronalazi u starim, crno-bijelim fotografijama, a jedna je i ovaj put predložak, s prizorom tipične ljudske dokolice, isforsiranim suživotom s prirodom, izletima u eko-sela, jahanja domaćih životinja – lažne idile čiji jedan segment donosi, evo i u predstavljenom uratku. Fotografija je osnova i hiperrealističkog pristupa slici Stjepana Šandrka. Tu podvostručenu realnost donesenu na platno u savršenoj tehničkoj dovršenosti predstavlja „zlatnom slikom“ koja pripada istoimenom ciklusu u kojem se koristi fotografijama poznatih glumica i manekenki prikazujući ih kao suvremene ikone stila, lažna božanstva kojima se danas klanja konzumerističko društvo. Stoga crno-bijelu figuru stavlja na zlatnu pozadinu podražavajući srednjevjekovno poimanje svetih ikona.

Zlatku Kauzariću Ataču žensko tijelo nije ikona, ali je svakako predmet obožavanja i umjetnička opsesija kojoj je posvetio cijeli svoj život. Njegova slika nikada nije konačna. Ona je proces u kojem se u jednom trenutku zaustavlja kako bi ga kasnije nastavio u drugoj, trećoj... slici. Stoga slika i crta u serijama kako bi ljepota i ugoda stvaralačkog čina trajala što dulje. Ciklus Atačevih „aktova pod vodom“ prepoznatljivost su i vrijednost kolonije Paradiso, čija se erotičnost krije u potezu, u načinu na koji razlijeva boju rastačući tijelo u toj pikturnalnoj materiji, a ne toliko u samom motivu ili obliku.

Motiv mora, njegovi zanimljivi ritmovi, titraji atmosferu, kretanje valova, ljepota prirode s kojom trebamo živjeti u harmoniji neizostavni su u likovnom promišljanju Simona Kajtme. Veza s prirodom intenzivira njegove forme koje su, iako u sebi nose figurativnu prepoznatljivost konkretnog predloška, u vijek na rubu apstraktнog izraza. Razigranost, opuštenost i spontanost prate njegov motiv razigranih tijela djece na plaži, prikazanih shematisirano, brzim potezima kista, nastalim u trenutku. Gestu kontrolirana figuracijom, ekspresija smirena u formi tijela.

Oslobođena gesta u magmatičnoj materiji koju čistom bojom bilježi na podlogu izvlačeći u prvi plan sam slikarski postupak i jedinstvenu tehniku. To je slika Rajka Čubera. Njome ovaj izuzetan autor „bezvremenskih svjetova“ potvrđuje svoju egzistenciju u poljima čiste apstrakcije (enformela) proizašlu iz dubokih unutrašnjih poticaja kao refleksija mentalnih krajolika.

Makoto je pak autor bezivotnih, ogoljenih krajobraza na kakve nailazimo u filmovima naučne fantastike. To su zapravo imaginarna mjesta u koja autor smješta svoje bijele figure koje su zapravo prisutnost njegovih instalacija – gipsanih odljeva tijela omotanih u bijelo platno. Oni su kao simboli (bijeli kodovi) novog tjelesnog inkarnata temelji Makotove likovne priče. „Bijeli kod“ (Codice bianco) projekt je umjetničkih instalacija kojima je glavni protagonist sam autor – goli, bijeli čovjek kao trodimenzionalno umjetničko djelo.

Također nekonvencionalan u izboru motiva i formata mladi je sarajevski slikar Edvin Granulo. Svojstvene tehnike u vizualizaciji svog svjetonazora kojeg se ne odriće ni na Rabu. Njegove slike mjesta su civilizacijskih ropotarnica napućene začudnim mehaničkim tvorevinama, odbačenim vozilima, generatorima, turbinama, motorima. Slika apokaliptičnih naznaka u kojoj obitavaju futuristički strojevi kao naznake mogućih situacija, mogućih realnosti koje su za sada realizirane samo u Granulovom svijetu slike.

Mjesta daleko ljepših vizija slike su Milene Mladenove. Napućene pticama asociraju na djetinjstvo, nevin i bezbrisan život, čistoću, slobodu, zajedništvo, na lutanja, daleka putovanja, ali i na zavičaj, na čežnju za povratkom u rodni dom. Ptice od davnina predstavljaju inspiraciju umjetnicima, a Milenine lastavice svojom jednostavnošću i clementarnošću likovnog izraza, sugestivnošću čistih oblika arhaično obrađenih, otkrivaju je kao umjetnicu snažne kiparske vokacije, kiparicu koja i sliku gradi kao slojevito materijsko polje u kojem također donosi ljepotu motiva i pokazuje zamjetno tehničko umijeće.

Ptica je motiv i kiparu Denisu Krašoviću. Ali njegova ne leti. Našopana je to željezna gušča glava istegnutog vrata i izbuljenih očiju. Skulptura oblikovana s nakanom naturalističke prepoznatljivosti, kao stvar svjetonazora, ispunjena duhovitošću i infantilnim pristupom motivu. Njegov je rad uvijek narativan, živ i pulsirajući, tehnički dotjeran i uvijek aktualan.

Skulpturom se predstavlja i Sanja Sašo. Pocinčana žičana tkanina konstantan je Sanjin materijal kojeg je sada oformila u antropomorfno tijelo malog, golog Ježušeka u kojem se prožima vanjski i unutarnji volumen, koji je više nematerijalna emanacija nego konkretno omaterijaliziran lik. Sanjin mali Ježušek ili mal Sungač obilježio je Rab. Izložila ga je i u ruševinama Sv. Ivana kao dio svog umjetničkog projekta kojim svoje Heliotransfere izlaže u kulturnim i prirodnim spomenicima diljem Hrvatske.

Trideset i troje likovnih umjetnika i njihovih likovnih djela kao začudni, iskreni pogled na stvarnost koja nas okružuje. Naš fascinantn pogled na darovanu nam likovnu ljepotu.

To je „hrvatski pogled“. Vrijedi ga pogledati.

Marking the thirteenth anniversary of running artistic events and organising exhibitions, Art colony Paradiso emphasizes the importance of artistic activity in presenting and promoting one's country.

Art colony Paradiso is a carefully and thoughtfully designed and artistically engaged project that implies an exchange of practical and existential experiences of Croatian and international painters, connecting and simultaneously presenting both Croatian and international current artistic output with the aim to add a wider perspective to the artistic scene through an interaction of various stylistic, iconic and cultural expressions – including the reflections on contemporary artistic experiences of Croatian, European and world artists and indicating other relevant segments, such as the presentation of the works in exhibition environments, or the possibilities of presenting them as a necessary component of the touristic wealth of a country. When developing and marketing the arts, it is also important to place art within the wider international context. Therefore, the Art colony does not focus on Croatian fine art production only, but by gathering European and world artists to work together and present their pieces in the Makek-Paradiso Gallery, it introduces the works created in the colony throughout Europe. Apart from featuring internationally, this project is markedly bearing the sign of its location – of the island and the town of Rab – the genius loci that marks the modern cultural context by its historical-architectural sites, its artefacts, its magical aria and its geo-cultural position, as well as by an artistic event such as the Art colony Paradiso. Working in three sessions, the colony has organised three exhibition shows in Rab. A step further, with the purpose of presenting the works created in Rab to a wider public, was the exhibition at Makek Gallery in Zagreb, now traditionally presenting a selection of works, focusing always on a new segment of the gathering with the fundamental purpose of providing a distinguished presentation of Croatian and European fine art and enriching the cultural and artistic wealth of Croatia. The exhibition shows bring together artists of distinctive painterly expression, who embrace the required creative co-operation as a challenge and as an opportunity for interactions that can enable the questioning of their own creative potential. The works produced attest to the creativity with which the artists respond to the given working conditions, to creating outside of their own studios, and to working with others. Group exhibitions are always interesting projects highlighting a diversity of approaches to artistic forms that is not determined by cultural, social or religious differences but by distinctive artistic personalities, the wealth of iconic and morphological expressions, new “perspectives” to reality, society and art as traits of artistic creativity. Artists see the world differently. Their art brings them together, making them members of the same “exceptional lineage” where no sense of difference abides but that of creativity.

This year thirty three artists from eleven countries brought their unique perspectives to the town of Rab. In the first meeting of the colony held in May, ten of these artists transposed their experiences onto the canvas, turning it into a witness of pleasure and inspiration, beauty and power of the irresistible Rab paradise.

In May Rab welcomed the following artists: Miloš Prekop, Robert Almaši and Chuares from Slovakia, Alexander Trifonov, Elena Rzhevskaya and Sergey Chesnokov-Ladyzhenski from Russia, Gerd Messmann from Germany, and Ljiljana Barković, Aleksandar Bezinović and Sebastijan Dračić from Croatia.

The source of inspiration for Miloš Prekop is again a woman, the motif he uses to quote certain “icons” from art history. It is a de-personalised figure treated sculpturally, from which we can read Prekop's obsession with African ritual masks, and homage to Picasso, or, this time perhaps to Vermeer. “Woman on the Beach” wears a pearl necklace as a reference to the “Girl with a Pearl Earring”.

Composing sculptural forms within a painting, creating with surfaces of pure paint, a clear expression of geometry and a structural treatment of light represent the characteristics of the painting by Alexander Trifonov, a Russian receptualist. The painting explores the inner laws of painterly expression, providing a possibility for multiple interpretations and in this instance containing traces of the organic alongside the cubic forms – zoomorphic bird-like shapes.

In the painting of Robert Almaši inspiration by nature and feminine beauty is replaced by a reduced geometry that embodies traces of the spatial dimension, opening a fascinating perspective and the expression of basic colours, of black, white and red, as well as a measured expressive exuberance within the framed field of the canvas.

A geometry-based composition can also be seen in the painting of Ljiljana Barković. This painting is a field of accentuating plastic and expressive means, of evaluating the values of natural properties of lines, shapes and surfaces, and their combinations and relationships. She explores the forms in their coloristic and perspective metamorphoses, multiplying and modifying them to the point of associative recognisability (“The Sails”).

Elena Rzhevskaya also readily explores geometry. Her models of painterly expression follow the spirit of artistic tendencies constructed from the programmes and activities based on abstract expression. With an appealing grid of entwined lines moving in all directions she ascertains the basic lines of force of the composition, intensifying the visual experience and interrogating the possibility of moving and pulsating of forms, while maintaining the focus on relationships of colours, line directions and spatial dimensions.

An attractive geometrical play contained within a figurative expression characterizes the painting by Sergey Chesnokov-Ladyzhenski, a representative of Russian postmodernism, who builds his painterly world on the foundations of constructivism, cubism and geometry. The face of his figure reveals recognisable topos of Rab as the architectural elements that he uses to construct the central anthropomorphic form.

Elements of the humane can be read in the painting by a Slovak artist with the pseudonym of Chuares. For him the painting represents a place for experimenting with the painterly material and its effects. Based upon the elementary and the primary, it represents a reactivation of human materiality and of its transience within the perpetuity of human evolution, marked by a clear sign – a multiplicity of skulls, a recognisable morphological symbol in the expression of this young but artistically potent painter.

Saturation of symbols, signs and rebuses the reading of which requires knowledge of special codes, can also be found in the metaphysical realms of the painting by Aleksandar Bezinović. His artistic as wells as existential reflections are influenced by our contemporary reality. Addiction to the media and idolatry of false gods is revealed in the painting by means of establishing symbolic systems that supplement the main motif – a sacral building of Rab – with symbols and signs, with markings that outline the space of the painting and rationalise the fictiveness of the represented architecture.

The painterly world of Sebastijan Dračić represents a space full of readable symbols, of clear, actual natural spaces the existence of which belongs to some other time. These are in fact mental spaces whose dimensions are inaccessible to experiential senses but may be reached by the potential of intuition and knowledge of the primeval and original universe. Gerd Messmann also chooses the actual landscape as a site of poetic, lyrical reminiscences for his paintings. A drawing controls the expressivity of the basic colour range, outlining a figurative form, while the paint accentuates the light, the transparency of water, the rustle of tall trees, the calm of the static quality of architecture.

This year's second exhibition, presenting the works created in the 34th colony, traditionally took place in June. It included the works of some extraordinary artistic personalities from Europe and Croatia: always warmly welcomed guests, the Italian artists Massimo Lomi and Valentino Moradei Gabbielli, Džeko Hodžić and Admira Bradarić from Bosnia and Herzegovina, Shyqri Gjurkaj from Sweden, Inna Romanova from Russia, Nataša Milovančev from Macedonia and Smiljana Šafarić, Nikolina Ivezić, Marina Stoponja, Stipan Tadić and Hrvoje Dumančić from Croatia.

In his search for a motif, Massimo Lomi does not go far from Rab. This time he chooses Jablanac, imprinting its recognisable topology onto a wooden surface that once again exudes warmth and a slightly forgotten beauty.

In his search for a motif, Massimo Lomi does not go far from Rab. This time he chooses Jablanac, imprinting its recognisable topology onto a wooden surface that once again exudes warmth and a slightly forgotten beauty.

In his approach to the treatment of artistic form Valentino Moradei Gabbielli brings us the harmony of tradition and contemporaneousness. Human figure is a constant feature of his sculptural exploration, in this instance in a purified and simplified form, with sharp edges and an almost cubist treatment. Meditative and astral in its white plaster, it is “infinite”, as its name suggests.

Marina Stoponja and Hrvoje Dumančić choose clay as a supple material. He chooses it for the veneration of beauty and power of the masculine principle embodied in the motif of a horse, his standard expression. The power of terracotta clay compressed into a male body of a thoroughbred Croatian Posavec is simply shaped in a self-contained form, painted in Rab blue and patinated in the sea of Rab.

Marina Stoponja chooses dark terracotta clay as the material for her pillow. From this “mother earth” there sprouts life, a bronze bean as a symbol of fertility and growth, a grain of knowledge luring us to be touched, it shines and accentuates the space with a well-balanced contrast of dark and light, of opaque and reflective, of warm and cold. The artist brought her pillows together in the cycle “Pillow Talk”, within which she explores, always primarily following the idea, the relationship between the artist and the consumer in the gallery space.

The painting of our Swedish visitor Shyqri Gjurkaj contains artefacts of nature as elements of the primordial, as traces in time and space. Living in a new country has enabled this Kosovar artist to comprehend the “speech” of rocks and stones and understand the fascination with that natural substance and its significance in numerous cultures (obelisks, stećci, Stonehenge, etc.). Inspired by the medium of these sacred stones, he creates a painterly imaginary world in which the opposites neatly match: the real and the unreal, the rational and the irrational, the possible and the impossible. Originality and mastery of this artist emanates from the powerful materiality of the painting accentuated by non-painterly materials and the voluminous quality of the painted rocks, as well as by the principles of underpainting revealing a different life in each layer of the painting.

Another exceptional name from the arts world appeared in the June meeting of the Colony. Džeko Hodžić, an important figure in Bosnian-Herzegovinian painterly corpus, homo universalis, a sculptor, a draftsman, arts events organiser, a teacher and a cultural activist. He introduced himself by a painting from the cycle “White Gardens”, his own response to the need for a different future, for new and better times. Through the whiteness materialised by the light determining new meanings that we recognise as the artist's own civilizational, cultural, religious and above all vital signs and symbols of human existence, his painting is a field of play shaped in the relationships of the visible and the suggested relief drawing within an absolute whiteness.

Smiljana Šafarić also reaches for the play of brightness and coloured substance. The build of her painting is made of homogenous, partly relief pigments of the prevalent white, which she underpaints and layers by applying non-painterly material – cardboard – by means of which she opens the possibility for a painterly exploration at the level of compositions-structures. Her “Window” is a point of entry into the poetic space, into an “inner painting” of the personal experience transferred into a liberated substance.

“Poetic spaces” open before our eyes in the painting of Nataša Milovančev. They are a summation of painterly reflections by means of which she articulates the purity of the analytical and reductionist approach to space, in the spirit of geometrical reconstruction of reality and its re-synthesis in the realm of the painting.

The landscapes of Rab that we see in Nataša's painting inspire the young Stipan Tadić in a very different way. The main theme of his “Summer Breeze” is surrendering to pleasure and lazing on the beach in an ambience of the irresistible Mediterranean aria, allowing him, according to his own words, to place every event, person or situation in a context of artistic significance, to make it known, famous and an important moment recorded in the historical-artistic corpus. He treats this summer play of ironic and parodist implications contained in the painting's title in an utterly painterly manner, revealing a true artistic aspect of a creative personality developed on the foundations of traditional painting.

The work of the young Admira Bradarić also abounds in associations to summer pleasures, the sea, the beaches, the flora and fauna. She displays her artistic expression as an unforgettable experience that sublimates her talent for graphics and painting, by contrasting strong contour lines and surfaces treated by basic colours.

The irresistible Mediterranean, the call of the vastness of the sea materialised in the poetic inspiration of "Siren's Letters", the virtuosity of personal painterly handwriting used for constructing a nostalgic story by applying golden leaves onto a classical painting ground, scratching into its surface the sign as a recognisable code – that is the figurative creation of Inna Romanova that entwines the elements of decorative (Secessionist) and material painting.

Not a siren but an idle pin-up girl resting while posing dazzlingly and luring us to an erotic play – this is the woman painted by Nikolina Ivezić, who does not give up her motif even when painting in Rab. Her luxurious heroine, created in painted Styrofoam and accentuated by a lit metal frame, is a symbol of the stereotypes imposed by the society and of women seen as "sexual objects". It is interesting that the artist exposes herself to that perception, since the painting is a self-portrait.

The 35th meeting of the Colony, or the third meeting this year (fourth when counting the Slovakian colony), held in September was dominated by some interesting international and Croatian names. Through interactions of their artistic personalities, young artists, as well as mature and established ones, created an appealing and fruitful opus and presented it in the final Rab exhibition. Georg Ozory from Germany, Japanese artist Makoto from Italy, Simon Kajtna and Rajko Čuber from Slovenia, Edvin Granulo from Bosnia and Herzegovina, Milena Mladenova from Bulgaria, Sanja Sašo, Martina Grlić, Stjepan Šandrk, Denis Krašković and Zlatko Kauzlaric Atač from Croatia.

Structural composition created by means of simple cubes and paint-treated surfaces represents a preoccupation of the Hungarian artist living in Germany, Georg Ozory.

His painting shows a geometrical form through which he interrogates the relationships between colour and shape, constructing his "Dream Castle" by basic painterly means using a classical medium (canvas) and material (acrylic and watercolour).

Another artist creating in the "classical" medium of painting is Martina Grlić. However, her templates are real, assimilated into the painting as elements of pure narrative, an idealised story about the American "time of prosperity" of the 1950s, revealing the front and the back side of the world that in an illusion of security continually imparts fear (from nuclear catastrophe, terrorism, etc.). She finds her motifs in old black-and-white photographs, one of which serves as a model in this instance, showing a typical human pastime, forged coexistence with nature, visits to eco-villages, riding domestic animals – a false idyll, one aspect of which she represents in this most recent creation.

Photography is also the basis of the hyper-realistic approach to painting in the work of Stjepan Šandrk. He presents our duplicated reality, brought to the canvas with a perfect technical finish, with the "golden painting” from the cycle of the same name, where he uses photographs of famous actresses and models showing them as contemporary style icons, false deities idolised by the consumerist society. He thus places a black-and-white figure onto a gold-coloured background, alluding to the mediaeval conception of holy icons.

Female body is no icon for Zlatko Kauzlaric Atac, but it certainly is an object of adoration and a life-long artistic obsession. His painting is never finalised. It is a process stopped in a moment, to be continued in some other painting. He thus paints and draws in the form of series, so as to prolong the beauty and the pleasure of the creative act as much as possible. His cycle of “nudes submerged in water”, whose erotic quality lies not so much in the motifs or shapes, as in the way he spills the paint dissolving the body in that pictorial substance, is a known feature and a treasure of Paradiso colony.

The motif of the sea, with its attractive rhythms, tremors of the atmosphere, motion of the waves and the beauty of nature with which we should live in harmony, are unavoidable elements of the artistic reflections by Simon Kajtna. The connection with nature intensifies his forms which, although containing a figurative recognisability of actual templates, always lie on the edge of abstraction. Playfulness, relaxedness and spontaneity accompany his motif of lively bodies of children on the beach represented schematically, with quick brush strokes, created in a moment.

A gesture controlled by figuration, an expression contained in body form, a liberated gesture in magmatic substance recorded on the canvas by pure paint, bringing out the very procedure of painting and a unique technique – that is the painting by Rajko Cuber. With this work, this extraordinary author of “timeless worlds” ascertains his being in the realms of pure abstraction (informel) emerging from deep inner impulses as reflections of mental landscapes.

Makoto, on the other hand, is an author of lifeless barren landscapes we come across in science fiction films. These are fictitious places which the artist populates with white figures that actually represent his installations – gypsum casts of bodies enwrapped in white linen. They are like symbols (white codes) of new body incarnate, the foundations of Makoto’s pictorial narrative. The “White Code” (Codice bianco) is an artistic installation project featuring the artist himself as the main protagonist – a naked white man as a three-dimensional artwork.

The young painter from Sarajevo, Edvin Granulo, is also unconventional in the choice of his motifs and formats, as well as in his distinctive technique for visualising his world view which he does not forego even in Rab. His paintings can be seen as sites of civilizational scrap-rooms inhabited by mechanical constructions, cast-away vehicles, generators, turbines and engines. His is a painting of apocalyptic indications, in which futuristic machines exist as signs of possible situations, of possible realities that exist for the time being only in the world of Granulo’s painting.

In the paintings of Milena Mladenova we find sites of far prettier visions. Inhabited by birds, they allude to childhood, to innocent and carefree living, purity, freedom, community, wanderings, journeys to faraway places, but also to homeland and the yearning to return home. Birds have long been an inspiration for artists. Milena’s swallows, with their simplicity and basic painterly form, and a suggestiveness of pure archaically-processed shapes, reveal her to be an artist of strong sculptural vocation, a sculptor who head.

builds a painting as a layered material field in which she also displays the beauty of the motifs and shows a considerable technical skill.

A bird is also a motif for the sculptor Denis Krašković. Except that his bird does not fly. It is a stuffed iron head of a goose, with a stretched out neck and bulging eyes. It is a sculpture shaped with the intention to be naturalistically recognisable, as a matter of world view, infused with ingenuity and an infantile approach to motif. His work is always narrative, lively and pulsating, technically perfected and always topical. Sanja Sašo is another artist who introduces herself through sculpture. In her work she always uses galvanised wire fabric, by which she now shapes an anthropomorphic body of a small naked Jesus, a sculpture that mutually permeates inner and outer spaces representing an immaterial emanation rather than an actually materialized figure. Her little Jesus, or little Sungač, has marked Rab colony. She has exhibited it in the ruins of St. John's as part of her art project "Heliotransfers", concerned with exhibiting in cultural and natural monuments across Croatia.

The thirty three painters and their creations give us an amazing and honest view of the reality that surrounds us. We look at the given beauty of painting, fascinated.

That is the "Croatian view". It is worth seeing.

Robert Almaši

Rođen je 27.01. 1948. godine, Moravske Kracany, Slovačka. Stručno obrazovanje stječe u Školi primijenjenih umjetnosti u Brnu od 1963.g. do 1967.g. kod prof. D. Chatrnyja. Od 1968.g. studira na Akademiji likovnih umjetnosti u Bratislavi u klasama prof. Cemickeha, Matejka i doc. Gajdoša na odjelu monumentalnog slikarstva. Uz slikarstvo bavi se i grafikom i glazbom. Predsjednik je Udruženja likovnih umjetnika zapadne Slovačke te potpredsjednik Umjetničkog savjeta Galerije suvremenih mađarskih umjetnika u Dunajskoj Sredi. Almaši je fasciniran ljepotom svoje zemlje, njezinom prirodom te živi na selu okružen vlastitom inspiracijom. Uz zemlju njegova je trajna inspiracija žena i ljudi njegova kraja personificirani u slikama u oblike prirodnih motiva. Godine 2004. preselio se u rodno selo, gdje živi i radi u vlastitom studiju – galeriji.

Born in Moravske Kracany on 27 January 1948. He was educated at the School of Applied Arts in Brno from 1963 to 1967 under the tutorship of Professor D. Chatrny. In 1968 he started his studies at the Academy of Fine Arts in Bratislava in the class of Professors Cemickeh, Matejka and an assistant professor Gajdoš in the Department of monumental painting. Apart from painting, Almaši also pursues graphic design and music. He is the president of the Union of Painters of Western Slovakia and the vice-president of the Arts Council for the Gallery of Contemporary Hungarian Artists in Dunajska Sreda. He is fascinated with the beauty of his country and its nature, and lives in the countryside surrounded by his own inspiration. As well as the country, his lasting inspiration is the female figure and the people from his region, personified in his painting into a wealth of natural motifs. In 2004 he moved to his home village where he lives and works in his own studio-gallery.

Zlatko Kauzlaric Atac

Rođen je 1945. godine u Koprivnici, Hrvatska. Poslije završene gimnazije upisuje se na ALU u Zagrebu. Za vrijeme studija uključuje se u rad Studentskog eksperimentalnog kazališta. Diplomira u klasi prof. Miljenka Stančića i odmah postaje suradnikom majstorske radionice prof. Krste Hegedušića, a 1973.g. postaje asistent na ALU u Zagrebu gdje i sada radi kao redoviti profesor, a jedno vrijeme i dekan. Uz slikarstvo i grafiku intenzivno se bavi scenografijom i kostimografijom, a surađivaо je na stotinjak kazališnih projekata u zemlji i inozemstvu te nekoliko filmskih i televizijskih. Autor je i nekoliko likovnih intervencija u javnim prostorima. Godine 1996. izlazi mu monografija koju potpisuje Tonko Maroević. Dobitnik je mnogih nagrada za slikarstvo i scenografiju te ordena „Danice Hrvatske s likom Marka Marulića“ za zasluge u kulturi.

Atačev egzistiranje u poljima slikarskog obilježili su radovi – oni prvi nastali za njegova djelovanja unutar grupe „Biafra“ (od 1970.g.), portreti poznatih osoba u izražajnom pokretu, aktovi te brojni autoaktovi. Od samih početaka autor baštini osjećaj za ekspresiju trenutka, ritam, pokret te karakterističnu umjetničku angažiranost. Trenutna slikarska preokupacija aktovi su uronjeni u vodu u kojima crtež biva zamijenjen dominacijom čistog slikarskog tretiranja podloge kolorom, otkrivajući svu virtuznost vrsnog majstora koji ekspresiju ne zatomišljuje figurativnim izričajem.

Born in Koprivnica in 1945. After completing secondary education he enrolls in the Academy of Fine Arts. During his studies he takes part in the activities of the Experimental Student Theatre. He graduated in the class of Professor Miljenko Stančić and immediately joined the master workshop of Professor Krsto Hegedušić. In 1973 he became an assistant professor at the Academy of Fine Arts in Zagreb where he still works, and has been a dean for a period of time. As well as in painting and graphics, he works extensively in set and costume design, and has worked on a hundred of theatre projects in Croatia and abroad, as well as on a number of film and television projects. He has authored several artistic interventions in public spaces. In 1996 Tonko Maroević published Atač's monograph. Atač has received numerous painting and set design awards, as well as the Order of Danica Hrvatska for his contributions to cultural heritage. His presence in painting has been marked by a range of artworks – from early works created during his activity in Biafra Group (since 1970), to portraits of famous people engaged in expressive movement, to nudes and numerous self-portraits in the nude. From the very outset this painter has possessed a sense for the expression of the moment, rhythm and movement, and a typical artistic commitment. Atač's current painterly preoccupations are nudes submerged in water, which reveal how drawing is replaced by the domination of a purely painterly treatment of the canvas, disclosing the virtuosity of the eminent master who does not confine the expression to representational formulations.

Rajko Čuber

Rođen je 1957.g. u Brestanici, Slovenija. Školovao se u Srednjoj školi dizajna, a slikarstvo diplomirao na ljubljanskoj Akademiji za likovno umetnost, a specijalku iz grafike kod prof. Bogdana Borčića. Za svoj grafički rad dobio je Prešernovu nagradu. Prvu samostalnu izložbu imao je 1981. u ljubljanskoj galeriji Krka. Od tada je sudionik brojnih izložaba, a kao fotograf suradnik je National Geographica. Kao samostalan umjetnik, slikar i fotograf živi i radi u Brestanici. Svetovi koje Čuber slika su bezvremeni, refleksije su njegovog unutarnjeg svijeta. U slikarstvu mu dominiraju dva elementa: boja i prostor, oba promjenjiva. Specifičnost njegove tehnike važan je segment njegovog umjetničkog jezika.

„Rab“, diptih 70x100 cm x2, akril na platnu

Born in Brestanica, Slovenia, in 1957. Rajko attended the Secondary School for Design and studied painting at the Academy of Fine Arts in Ljubljana, specialising in graphics with Professor Bogdan Borčić. He received the Prešern award for his work. His first individual exhibition was held in 1981 in Krka Gallery in Ljubljana. He has exhibited in numerous shows since then and has worked for the National Geographic as a photographer. He lives and works in Brestanica as a freelance artist, painter and photographer. The worlds he paints are timeless, reflections of his inner universe. Two elements dominate his painting: colour and space, both changeable. The specificity of his technique represents an important segment of his artistic expression.

Sebastijan Dračić

Rođen je 1980.g. u Zagrebu, Hrvatska. Završio je Akademiju likovnih umjetnosti u Zagrebu 2006.g. u klasi prof. Zlatka Kesera. Do sada je imao desetak samostalnih izložaba te izlagao na značajnim skupnim žiriranim izložbama u zemlji (Zagrebački Salon) i inozemstvu (Bijenale mladih Europe i Mediterana, Skopje, Künstlerhaus u Beču, u New Yorku,..). Sudjelovao je u rezidencijalnom programu u Beču. Dobitnik je nekoliko nagrada od kojih i Erste nagradu – Novi Fragmenti. Član je Hrvatskog društva likovnih umjetnika (HDLU). Živi i radi u Zagrebu. Stipendista je Pollok-Krasner Fundacije 2012. – 2013.g. U njegovom radu vidljiva je povezanost s tradicionalnim slikarskim naslijedom, svijest o slici kao fizičkom predmetu i ustrajnosti na imanentnim zakonitostima medija.

Nagrada Moša Pijade omogućila mu je slikarsko usavršavanje u Parizu. Od izlagačkih početaka do danas održao je stotinu skupnih izložaba u Švedskoj, ex. Jugoslaviji, drugim državama Europe i SAD-u te preko 40 samostalnih u Poljskoj, Austriji, Kosovu i Švedskoj. Živi u Švedskoj i član je Švedskog udruženja likovnih umjetnika, IAA – Kosovskog udruženja likovnih umjetnika te je član nekoliko lokalnih udruženja. Dobitnik je šest nacionalnih i međunarodnih nagrada: Prva nagrada za slikarstvo, Kosovo; Prva nagrada na međunarodnom Trijenalu (1981.), Jugoslavija; Prva nagrada na Bijenalu maloga formata, Poljska. Život u Švedskoj, zemlji koja je sudbinski vezana uz kamenje i „govor stijena“, obilježio je i umjetničko djelovanje ovog autora najupečatljivije predstavljeno ciklusom „Tragovi u vremenu i prostoru“.

„Tragovi u vremenu i prostoru“, 90x116 cm, kombinirana tehnička na platnu

Born in the town of Peć in Kosovo in 1950, where he completed the School of Arts, Shyqri went on to study arts education at the College of Teacher Education in Sarajevo. There he also graduated in painting from the Academy of Fine Arts. The Moša Pijade award enabled him to specialise painting in Paris. Since his first exhibition shows, he has held a hundred group shows in Sweden, former Yugoslavia, Europe and the USA, as well as over 40 individual shows in Poland, Austria, Kosovo and Sweden. He lives in Sweden and is a member of the Swedish Association of Artists, of the Association of Artists of Kosovo (IAA) and several local associations. He has received six national and international awards: the first award for painting in Kosovo, the first award at 1981 International Triennial in Yugoslavia, the first award at Small Format Biennial in Poland. The life in Sweden, a country deeply connected with rocks and the “language of stone”, has marked the creative output of this painter, most impressively presented by the cycle Traces in Time and Space.

Massimo Lomi

Rođen 1953. godine u Livornu, Italija. Kao mladić slijedi svog djeda, poznatog talijanskog slikara, upoznavajući se s razdobljem talijanskog slikarstva na prijelazu između 1800. i 1900.

Godine 1968. upisuje školu primjenjene umjetnosti (Liceo Artistico) te se predaje svom slikarskom instinktu. Već 1972. ima svoju prvu samostalnu izložbu u Milanu gdje je njegov rad cijenjen zbog osobnosti koju izražavaju njegove vedute. Slijede brojne izložbe širom Italije, kojima se afirmira kao vršni figurativac. Na svojim brojnim putovanjima prihvaca i razvija teme koje su udaljene od naših ustaljenih shvaćanja a ujedno sazrijeva njegovo umjetničko iskustvo. Boraveći u USA i Sri Lanki, 1987. pronalazi inovativni pristup koji unosi u svoja slikarska ostvarenja. Godine 1990. imenovan je za tajnika Grupe Labronico, jedne od najstarijih umjetničkih udruga koja je u svoj povijesti imala članove kao što su Annigoni, Modigliani i Nomellini. Živi i radi u Livornu, koji mu je posvetio antologisku izložbu "Bottini dell'olio". Do sada je izlagao na brojnim izložbama u javnim i privatnim galerijama. Godine 2000. među umjetnicima je izabranim za obilježavanje milenija, 2002.g. izlaže u New Yorku, a 2003. u Briselskom parlamentu.

„Jablanac“, 46x80 cm, tempera na drvenoj podlozi

Born in Livorno in 1953. As a young man he follows his grandfather, a famous Italian painter, learning about Italian painting between 1800 and 1900. In 1968 he enrolls in the applied arts school Liceo Artistico and commits to his painterly instinct. Already in 1972 he holds his first individual show in Milan, where his work is appreciated for the personality expressed in his cityscapes. He shows his work in numerous exhibition shows across Italy and establishes himself as a major representational artist. On his various journeys he adapts and develops themes removed from our accepted ways of seeing, simultaneously enriching his artistic experience. While staying in the USA and Sri Lanka in 1987 he finds an innovative approach which he introduces to his work. In 1990 he is elected secretary of Labronico Group, one of the oldest art associations that records among its past members Annigoni, Modigliani and Nomellini. He currently lives and works in Livorno, a city that honoured him with an anthological exhibition Bottini dell'olio. He has exhibited in a number of shows in public and private galleries. In 2000 he was among the group of artists chosen to mark the millennium, in 2002 he exhibits in New York, and in 2003 in Brussels Parliament.

Miloš Prekop

Rođen je 1967.godine u Smolenicama, Slovačka. Studirao je na Pedagoškom fakultetu u Bratislavi specijalizirajući se za slikarstvo. Svoje slike izlaže na brojnim samostalnim i skupnim izložbama u Slovačkoj i inozemstvu. Slike mu se nalaze u mnogim nacionalnim i inozemnim kolekcijama. Dobitnik je brojnih nagrada, a neke od njih poput International Code of Slovakia te brončana medalja na natjecanju u Perla Adriatico u Italiji iznimno su mu važne. Član je ZSUS-a (Zapadnoslovačka Unija Slikarov). Živi i radi u Ciferu (selo Pac) u Slovačkoj. U svom umjetničkom radu prošao je kroz iznimno bogat i dinamičan razvoj. Od konceptualizma i konstruktivizma do današnjeg izraza u kojem su simbolizam i arhetipovi glavni nositelji likovnog.

,Žena na plaži“, 150x120 cm, akril na platnu

Born in Smolenice (Slovakia) in 1967. He studied at the Faculty of Teacher Education in Bratislava, specialising in painting. He exhibits his paintings at numerous individual and group shows in Slovakia and abroad. His works can be found in many national and international collections. Prekop has received many awards, some of which, like the International Code of Slovakia or the bronze medal at the Perla Adriatico contest in Italy, are very important to him. He is a member of the Union of Painters of Western Slovakia, and lives and works in Cifer (the village of Pac) in Slovakia. His artistic growth has been exceptionally rich and vibrant, ranging from conceptualism and constructivism to the contemporary expression whose exponents of the painterly aspects are primarily symbolism and archetypes.

Inna Romanova

Ruska slikarica rođena u Ukrajini, grad Poltara, 1971.g. Završava Umjetnički fakultet (Kuban State University) specijalizirajući se za slikarstvo. Sudjelovala je na više od dvadesetak izložaba u Rusiji i u drugim zemljama. Njezini radovi nalaze se u mnogim evropskim umjetničkim zbirkama. Članica je Udruženja likovnih umjetnika Rusije i Kluba „Art and Heritage“ pri UNESCO-u. Živi i radi u Krasnodaru, Rusija. Inna je tipična predstavnica „ruske škole slikarstva“. Njezino slikarstvo karakterizira postimpresionistički pristup radu. Koristi se mješavinom tehnika impresionirajući javnost svježinom svojih djela, neočekivanim oblicima i kombinacijama unutar figurativnog izraza.

„Sirenina pisma“, 90x73 cm, ulje/zlatni listići na platnu

This Russian painter was born in the town of Poltara in Ukraine in 1971. She graduated from the Arts Faculty at the Kuban State University, specialising in painting. She has taken part in more than twenty exhibition shows in Russia and other countries. Her works can be found in many European art collections. She is a member of the Association of Russian Painters and the UNESCO Art and Heritage Club. Inna lives and works in Krasnodar in Russia. She is a typical representative of the Russian school of painting. Her work is characterised by a post-impressionist approach. She uses mixed media, impressing her audience with the originality of her works and with unexpected shapes and combinations within a figurative expression.

Born in 1961, Elena was only sixteen when she enrolled in the fashion design programme at Moscow Institute of Technology (today GASBU) studying with the famous Vyacheslav Zaitsev. In 1982 she commenced working at Moscow Fashion House, where she continued collaborating with the leading fashion icons such as Zaitsev himself. In 1997 she founded a fashion laboratory with Lydmila Davydova, Slava Zaitsev – a private education institution promoting the brand "Couturier Slava Zaitsev". She became the artistic director of TXT Art Gallery (fabrics and technology) in Moscow in 2003. She has worked as a fashion reporter and illustrator in numerous fashion publications. Her famous collage work, in which she uses newspaper cut-outs of female lips, is the hallmark of her creativity, as well as of Russian fashion presentations (used at Fashion Week). She works as a designer for many brands and teaches at two Moscow universities – she is the principal lecturer at Moscow Fashion Laboratory and an assistant professor in the design department at the Faculty of Fashion. Elena is a member of the Russian Association of Designers. Last year she marked 29 years of creative work in design, painting and design teaching at a prestigious Russian fashion university. She has exhibited in two individual shows and several noted group shows and has received awards for her work. She lives and works in Moscow.

Stjepan Šandrk

Rođen je 1984. god. u Osijeku, Hrvatska. Maturirao je slikarski dizajn na Školi za primijenjenu umjetnost u Osijeku. Godine 2006. diplomirao je slikarstvo na ALU u Zagrebu, u klasi prof. Igora Rončevića. Izlagao je na nekoliko samostalnih izložaba u Zagrebu, Osijeku, Krku i Barceloni, predstavlja svoje „Zlatne slike“ na sarajevskom filmskom festivalu te izlaže na značajnim skupnim izložbama: Umjetničkom paviljonu u Zagrebu, HDLU-u (Umjetnost danas), 42. Zagrebačkom Salonu, Klovićevim dvorima,... Godine 2001. dobio je 1. nagradu za dizajn plakata, nagradu Hrvatske gospodarske komore, Vijeća ALU za najbolji diplomski rad, nagradu Slavonskog bijenala i T-HT nagradu. Radi i živi u Zagrebu i polazi poslijediplomski doktorski studij slikarstva. Šandrkova slika nema naglašenog problemskog stava, ona je nezavisna od elemenata poruke i pobude. Njegov hladni realizam otkriva interes za propitivanja čista vizualna govora, za konstruktivnu i kompozicijsku organizaciju slike.

„Adriana“, 100x70 cm, ulje/zlatni listići na platnu

Born in Osijek in 1984. He graduated in painting design from the School of Applied Arts in Osijek. He received a degree in painting from the Academy of Fine Arts in Zagreb, in the class of Prof. I.Rončević. He has exhibited in several individual shows in Zagreb, Osijek, Krk and Barcelona, as well as in eminent group exhibitions at Art Pavillion in Zagreb, Croatian Association of Artists (Art Today), 42nd Zagreb Salon, Klović Castle and others. In 2001 he received the first prize for poster design, an award from the Croatian Chamber of Economy, an award for the best graduation thesis from the Council of the Academy of Fine Arts, the Slavonia Biennial award and T-HT award. He lives and works in Zagreb and currently is a PhD student in painting. Šandrk's painting does not display a pronounced issue stance; it is freed from aspects of message and response. His cool realism reveals an interest in exploring the pure visual language and in constructive and compositional organisation of the painting.

Alexander Trifonov

Alexander Trifonov ruski je slikar treće generacije ruske Avangarde, rođen 1975. godine u Moskvi. Studirao je na Moskovskome Poligraphic Institut , gdje stječe obrazovanje dizajnera. Radi u moskovskome kazalištu od početka 90-ih. Od 1993.g. surađuje i s moskovskim Art Kinom te radi kao dizajner za mnoge časopise i reklame. Član je Saveza Umjetnika Rusije. Izlaže na mnogim skupnim i samostalnim izložbama (Moskva, New York, Yersey City, Malta). Njegovu izložbu u prestižnoj moskovskoj galeriji A-3 otvorio je Eduard Drobitsky, predsjednik Međunarodne federacije slikara pri UNESCO-u. Trifonov je istaknuti sljedbenik ruske avangarde i jedan od predvodnika umjetničkog koncepte znanog kao receptualizam. Biti slikar za Trifonova znači stvoriti svoj, vlastiti svijet. On istražuje dubinske zakonitosti likovnih sredstava. Intuitivna kompozicija ustupa mjesto principima pravilnosti, međuodnosa. Strukturu slike gradi obojanim plohamu u kojima je upravo čista boja nositelj oblika.

„Sjetni dan“, 100x80 cm, ulje na platnu

Alexander Trifonov is a painter of the third generation of the Russian Avant-garde, born in Moscow in 1975. He studied at the Moscow Polygraphic Institute where he took a degree in design. Since the early 1990s he has worked in Moscow theatre. He has also collaborated with the Moscow Art Cinema since 1993, and worked as a designer for many magazines and advertising projects. He is a member of the Russian Association of Artists. Trifonov has exhibited his work in various group and individual shows (Moscow, New York, Yersey City, Malta). His exhibition show in the prestigious Moscow art gallery A-3 was opened by Eduard Drobitsky, the president of the International Federation of Painters at UNESCO. Trifonov is an outstanding follower of the Russian Avant-garde and one of the front-men of the artistic concept known as receptualism. For Trifonov, to be a painter means to create one's own world. He explores the inner laws of painting media. An intuitive composition frees a space for principles of regularity of interrelationships. He builds the structure of the painting by coloured surfaces on which the very paint defines the shape.
