Umjetnost - Odslika stvarnosti ili iluzija?

Na umjetnost utječe sve. Snažan utjecaj društvenih sila, umjetnička ovisnost o uzorima i prethodnicima je neminovna, umjetnost ovisi o specifičnostima tradicije, filozofije, naravno religije. Tako smo barem podučeni ili smo skloni razmišljati. No, što ako je sve to iluzija i ako upravo slike oblikuju naše misli kao što naša podsvijest porađa našu svijest. Jer, tvrde neki, upravo ono što umjetnik u odabranom mediju istražuje i prikazuje nije odslika prisvojenog svijeta, već je naše reagiranje na taj svijet. Dakle, mislimo da je naš vizualni svijet određen našim zemaljskim, fizičkim iskustvom. Što ako su svi događaji i predmeti koje susrećemo u našem stvarnom životu tek rezultat vizije i osjećaja u nama? Naučeni da slike i emocije imicira pojarni svijet, stvaran i materijalan, zakinuti smo istine da upravo mi vizualiziramo taj svijet u našem mozgu, u centru vizije. Ako je stvarnost u očima promatrača, odnosno ako smo direktno involvirani u stvaranje vlastite stvarnosti, moramo biti svjesni i snage duhovnih manifestacija kojima pripada i umjetnost, a koje nastaju asocijacijama, manipulacijama i simulacijama te razumske percepcije koju novootkrivenu donose pred nas kao vlastitu novostvorenu stvarnost upravo umjetnici. Njih dvadeset i devet stvaralo je tu čudesnu iluziju prvo na Rabu, kroz dva saziva, u lipnju i rujnu, potom u Wagrainu, novoj inozemnoj lokaciji kolonije koja se po drugi puta (prvi je puta bilo 2014.) održala u austrijskom alpskom turističkom biseru – hotelu Edelweiss. Predstavljajući kao i do sada hrvatsku i inozemnu likovnu produkciju s ciljem apostrofiranja umjetnosti kao važnog kulturnog segmenta u turističkoj promociji vlastite zemlje, djelujući kroz tri saziva, upriličivši dvije izložbe u Hrvatskoj i treću u Austriji te četvrtu u galeriji Makek u Zagrebu, kojom se publici predstavlja izbor rada i promovira kataloška publikacija, na ovogodišnji prvi saziv Art kolonija Paradiso poziva desetero umjetnika koji su stvarajući na Rabu imali priliku uživati i u čarobnoj rapskoj ariji, bisernom moru i bogatoj kulturnoj baštini. Hrvatskim umjetnicima pridružuju se umjetnici iz Italije, Makedonije i Slovačke.

U početku njezine slike uvijek je crtež. Sigurnom, konturnom linijom Nina Brkić oformljuje svoj glavni motiv – ženski akt koji u svom multipliciranju i čistoj gami primarnih boja biva pretvoren u njen prepoznatljiv idiom. Golo ljudsko tijelo zauzdalo je razigranu kolorističku gestu i u Marije Kondres. Iz vibrantne površine oblikovane bojom a obrubljene crnom, stvara antropomorfnu formu materijalizirajući prirodno i intimno poetsko iskustvo u cijelovitu sliku. Dok su u Marije muškarac i žena uhvaćeni u intimnom trenutku, u Nikoline Ivezić oni su dio konvencionalne priče, zauzdani i doslovno u okvire društvenog, spolnog, a sada i povjesnog. Naime, slike su dio novijeg „morskog“ ciklusa nastalog na predlošcima starih fotografija 20-ih godina. izrađene u njezinoj prepoznatljivoj tehnički obojenog kaširanog stiropora kao pop-artistički kritički uradci kojima i dalje propituje brojne društveno nametnute stereotipove. Istraživanjem socio-psiholoških modela, samoidentifikacijom kroz klasnu, nacionalnu ili etničku pripadnost bavi se u svom umjetničkom radu Gordana Vrencoska. U njezinim slikama jasno iščitavamo simbole ženstva – jajnolike, materničaste forme koje pronalazi u narodnom ruhu, oplemenjujući ih tradicijskim kukičanim segmentima, pokušavajući odgometnuti što ju kao ženu i ljudsko biće određuje unutar osobnih i kolektivnih sistema vrijednosti. Vrednovati čovjeka po onome što „jest“, omogućiti svakome pravo na dostojanstven i ljudski život, razvijati humanost i empatiju prema drugom čovjeku kroz umjetničko djelovanje dokazuje uradak makedonskog vizualnog umjetnika Hristijana Saneva. Nastavljući ispisivati i na rapskom diptihu znakovite poruke Brailleovim pismom, posvećuje ga grafitu isписаном на fasadi zgrade u Rabu – „Godine prolaze – ljubav ostaje“. Rapske impresije zabilježilo je i još troje inozemnih slikara: njemačka slikarica Tanja Zimmermann, Slovak Jan Fekete i Talijan Luca di Castri. Slike Tanje Zimmermann vizualna su priča njezinog šestodnevног boravka na Rabu. Jednu od najinventivnijih i najzanimljivijih umjetnica u svojoj zemlji Tanju ne resi spektakularan, već suzdržan, poetičan rad koji pozornost plijeni učinkom vlastite izvrsnosti. Suptilni su to, fragilni crtački tragovi, lazurni akvarelni nanosi boje u susretima plavog i crvenog kolora. Jan Fekete pak rapsku ulicu, kao segment tipskog i lokalnog, preobražava čudesnom sepiom u prizor svevremenskog, općeg mjesta, istovremeno stvarnog i nepostojećeg. Fekete svojim rapskim impresijama dokazuje da pripada i ostaje na samom vrhu slovačkog slikarstva. Luca di Castri osebujna je umjetnička figura čije slikarstvo s jasnim referencama na kazališne scenografije donosi sada u polje slike metafizički teatar, egzistencijalističkih, melankoličnih prizora osamljenosti i praznine suvremenog čovjeka, ali i mogućnost pronalaska mirnih utočišta, mjesta koja poput Raba počivaju u nekom tajanstvenom spokoju i vjekovima ognutoj tišini. Tišina koju može narušiti tek cvrčanje cvrčka ili zuj pčela koje su kao začudni, neочекivani motiv zaposjele sliku mladog Lava Paripovića. Odabравši za predmet svoje rapske inspiracije skulpturu sv. Kristofora (rad našeg eminentnog kipara Kuzme Kovačića), stavljujući ju u kontekst vlastitog recentnog opusa u kojem umjetnički rad identificira s predanim pčelinjim radom te poistovjećujući se s ovom vrijednom životinjom, Lav prikuplja i prerađuje stvari i pojave svoje okoline producirajući ih na svoja platna kao novi, kvalitetan i dragocjen uradak. Jedan takav donosi nam i Giuseppe Galli Pope, talijanski umjetnik koji je koncem 80-ih krenuo u propitivanje moći i potencijala temeljnih likovnih elemenata – forme i boje te odnosa formata. Kroz fine slojeve i vidljive nanose crvene boje na podslikanoj plavoj prosijava svjetlost i pulsira materija pa slika prerasta vlastiti format i formu – postaje tijelo, živi kromatski objekt.

A rujanski, drugi saziv kao da je konac ljetnog vremena i užarenih temperatura najavio i smirenijom, kontemplativnijom likovnom ekipom. U Rab umjetnički hodočasti devetero likovnih stvaralaca koji su svoj boravak, susret s rapskom arhitekturom i mediteranskim blagodatima ovjekovječili na platnu, papirima ili skulpturi u vlastitoj, već prepoznatljivoj maniri, dopuštajući si i poneki iskorak u prostoru neočekivanog, osobno neistraženog, no likovno izazovnog i potentnog. Ukipanjem granica među medijima, iluzjom koja nam se nudi kao zbilja, bavi se u prikazima sjena Ivana Ožetski. Tražiti smisao u „slikanju sjenama“ koje nas od podražavanja prostornog trodimenzionalnog odvode ka plohi, ka dvodimenzionalnosti, ideja je kojoj je bitnost u realizaciji, u njenoj konceptualnosti. Iako je predložak slici uvijek fotografija, imperativ je na idejnem, a tehnika i materijal tek su sirovine koje se uboљičavaju u ekstatičnim trenutcima opažanja svijeta i života oko sebe. Atmosfera i mirisi rapskih vrtova poslužili su kao inspirativni okidač kojim će nam se lirska profinjenom kolorističkom gamom prigušenih pastelnih tonova otkriti Marija Galić. Njezine glicinije slike su refleksije duše i duha, njezinih suptilnih saznavanja, raspoloženja, osjećaja i razmišljanja. Šetnja rapskim vrtovima šetnja je zapravo Marijinim svjetovima – njenom svješću i podsviješću, donesenim u medij slike apstraktnim ekspresivnim izričajem. Jedan od naših najosebujnijih kolorista, Toni Franović, slikar koji se s lakoćom hvata u koštac s Mediteranom kojega, naprotiv u svojoj slici strasno ljubi i podčinjava kolorističkoj gesti koju obuzdava tek priroda sama, odabire prepoznatljiv materijalni segment rapske vedute oplemenjene tipičnim mediteranskim raslinjem, divovskom agavom koju on unutar kolorističke konstrukcije arhitektonskih elemenata zaodijeva mističnom svjetlošću punog Mjeseca. Raskošan kolorist koji svoju sliku gradi isključivo bojom, Nepalac Keshav Malla, donosi u Hrvatsku vrtlog boja i oblika, spiralni labirint u kojem se prožimaju svjesna i nesvjesna gesta, složene apstraktne krivulje, koji u vlastitom vrtlogu poput uragana usisava i izbacuje boju, čistu i harmoničnu, boju koja za Mallu predstavlja život sam, nastojeći u nama probuditi radost u udivljenju promatranja esencijalne ljepote. Da pomoći umjetnosti svijet možemo promatrati drugačije, učiniti ga ljepšim, da možemo zaroniti pod površinu i dotaknuti barem okom neslućene ljepote vlastitog bivstva, oslobođiti se, rasplinuti, rastvoriti, dokazuju nam aktovi pod vodom Zlatka Kauzlića Ataća. U toj dugogodišnjoj slikarskoj preokupaciji, svoj prepoznatljiv i dominantan crtež on zamjenjuje čistim slikarskim tretiranjem motiva, kolorističkom mrljom oslobođene boje i geste koju ne zatomišljuje ni figurativna antropomorfnna forma. Tijelo kao noseća forma, no forma bez identiteta, obezglavljenja, otkoštana, tapecirana lutka kao figura začudnog teatra iz čije praznine vršiti čežnja za životom, skulptura je Antonije Balic Šimrak. Dihotomija ljudskosti, podvojenosti tijela i duše, razuma i osjeta, tema je doktorskog rada ove autorice koji u nazivu „Pola života“ apostrofira vrijeme sazrijevanja, mudrijeg sagledavanja vlastitosti. Produkt straha od gubitka same sebe, poziv ne pročišćenje, oslobođenje. Otrgnuta sada s marionetskog konca, zakoračila je bez straha u život, u tek otkrivenu ljepotu. A nekome je ljepota življena sadržana u dokolici, u lijenum uživanju pod suncem, u opažajima malih, svakodnevnih stvari – u lakoći življena. Ivan Marković multiplicira motiv ručnika, razigravajući scenu tretiranjem motiva različitim, ali tonski fino izbalansiranim kolorom, kontrastirajući crnom podlogom ovaj banalni motiv koji postaje svjedokom upravo važnosti ideje same, naspram danas popularne ali pomalo već trivijalizirane vještine (koju Marković nesumnjivo posjeduje). Ideja, te sloboda i svekolike mogućnosti njezine realizacije, odlikuje djelovanje vizualne umjetnice Ivone Verbanac. Ova Istranka, iako svoju umjetničku vokaciju prezentira performansima i multimedijskim instalacijama, na Rabu je odlučila slikati. No, daleko od „klasičnog“ i „s klasičnim“. Krhotinama razbijenih tanjura koristi se kao šablonama za otiske kojima na platnu konstruira svoju likovnu konstelaciju – na crnoj podlozi noćnog neba okrnuto neonsko sazviježđe. A bogatu rapsku produkciju mladog beogradskog slikara Marka Davidovića predstavljamo njegovom „Tišinom“. Slikom u kojoj je koncentrirana gotova sva stvaralačka filozofija slike slikaštva koje je kritika pokušala objasniti sintagmom – Solve et Coagula. Rastavljanje, analiza, razbijanje forme da bi se potom u polju slike stvorili novi odnosi, pročišćena forma. Snažna ekspresionistička gesta paralelno stvaranje u obličjima figurativnog i posve apstraktног, enformelna propitivanja potencijala slike, potom utihnutost u koloristički smirenom, ali teksturom živom bijelom polju i četiri crvena vertikalna akcenta kao četiri akorda čarobne „rapske tišine“.

Treći ovogodišnji saziv AKP upriličila je na novoj lokaciji – hotelu Edelweiss u Wagrainu. Sudržna ovog austrijskog hotelijerskog bisera s hrvatskim paradisom – „kućom umjetnosti, hrane i vina“, ponudila je nove inspirativne mogućnosti, nudeći svoje prirodno bogatstvo umjetničkoj eksploraciji. Okuplja dvanaestero umjetnika iz pet europskih zemalja koji su u interakciji svojih umjetničkih osobnosti stvorili zanimljiva djela, predstavivši ih izložbom zadnjeg dana svog austrijskog boravka. Zlatko Kauzlaric Atač i Antonija Balic Šimrak ovogodišnji su ponavljači koji su za svoje austrijsko predstavljanje modificirali i ambijentu prispodobili svoja recentna djela ili ih pak poput Atača obogatili ležernijim wagrainskim krokijima i dopadljivim portretima. Antonija sviju obezglavljenu lutku personalizira ženskim atributima upotpunjavajući svoje predstavljanje i ink-jet printom na platnu fiksiranom na vatelinsku podlogu. Ove jastučaste i poplunaste forme jasnih asocijacija na prostore spavanja, na „mesta snova“ u kojima oslobođeni i prihvaćeni možemo i zamisliti da je „život lijep“. Pod okriljem te sentence održavao se austrijski saziv navodeći umjetnike da u tom ozračju i stvaraju. Stano Buban potentnu ljepotu okružja sažima u animalističkoj priči u kojoj mjesto pronalazi, za njega već prepoznatljivi motiv bika. Kao svojevrsni autorov alter ego stalni je gost njegovih slika koje slovačka kritika deklarira kao namjerno sladunjavci odgovor na suvremenih svijet, ali i koje su dokaz likovnog majstorstva, tradicionalnog pristupa slici, tehnički i ideji samoj. Justyna Miklasiewicz svoj motiv pronalazi u daleko pitomijem bestijariju. Ljudsko tijelo kao glavni motiv svojih slika sada zamjenjuje likom plemenite životinje. Konjski par uhvaćen u dokolici hotelskog ranča njezin su doprinos wagrainskoj ljepoti življenja. Odslika idilične prirode i našeg mirnog života s njom ili pak snage planinskih masiva koje Justyna krokijevski bilježi na platna. Za Andreua Bratošovu hotel Edelweiss je meditativan prostor, mjesto gdje se snaga prirode i umjetnička profinjenost susreću u relaksirajućoj tišini, pružajući mogućnost božanske kontemplacije koju autorica naglašava i odabirom kolora. Kadar slike mladog hrvatskog slikara Frana Makeku definiran je pogledom na impresivan alpski krajolik. Finog strukturiranog tkanja njegovi akvareli ne izdvajaju ništa u panoramskom pogledu, već su otisci čiste atmosfere i emotivnog stanja potaknutog autorovim boravkom u prirodnom okruženju. Makeku potpuno kompatibilna Marija Vuletić gotovo da banalizira idiličnost wagrainskog prizora. Određen pogledom na prostor koji ju okružuje, u prizoru njezinih akvarela prepliću se vanjski i unutarnji prostor njezina trenutna boravka tretirani istim valerima i slobodnom morfolojijom koja se rastače pod kistom nonšalantne mladosti. Jer kako kaže i sama: „Ovo nije kiša nego moja mladost“. Struktura i boja oslobođene svake asocijacija predmetnog, uporna praksa slikanja, prijenos stvaralačke energije koja se na gasi činom dovršenja, to je slika koju potpisuje Johann Julian Taupe. Slika koju crpi iz unutarnjeg spremnika, obogaćenog emocionalnim i intelektualnim sposobnostima savladavanja stvarnosti. Djela koje se i temelji na unutarnjem zakonu slike same, potpuno nezavisne od stvarnosti vidljivog svijeta. „Nove slike“ kojoj je Taupes jedan od pionira u Austriji, u kojoj se događa i drama i harmonija, čarolija boje u jedinstvenosti bijelog. A „ženski torzo“ Antonije Balic nije usamljena forma koja iz dvodimenzionalnog svijeta slike zaposjeda izložbeni prostor hotela. Rebecca Glavan Glušac oplice vunom svoje trodimenzionalne cvjetne žičane forme, ostavljajući vidljivom procesualnost samoga rada i potencijala žice kao materijala kojim postiže kvalitete crteža u trećoj dimenziji. Tradicionalni zanati – kukičanje, pletenje, tkanje, kao tipični „ženski principi“ djelovanja djetotvornost i estetsku dimenziju pokazuju, eto i u skulptorskoj umjetničkoj formi. Venecijanski skulptor i konceptualni umjetnik Alessandro Cadamuro poseže za suvremenim materijalima koristeći se mogućnostima novih tehnologija zadržavajući se u inspirativnom i potencijalnom mediju stakla koje je postalo njegov prepoznatljiv, „zaštitni znak“. Njegovi „Poevetri“ – „poetska stakla“ nesumnjivo su poetske vizije stvorene stakлом, nerijetko upotpunjene i zvučnom kulisom, s gravurama kojima intervenira u staklenu površinu, ugrebavajući vlastite stihove, znakovite riječi, slova ili znakove te druga obličja kojima razbijaju linearne strukture i konstruiraju nove forme. Prisvajanje novih tehnologija i mogućnosti računalnih programa, digitalnog printa il' digitalne fotografije, postalo je neminovnost u umjetničkoj praksi mnogih vizualnih stvaralača. Zdravko Milić iskazuje vlastiti svjetonazor i kritički stav na društvenu stvarnost, gradeći izričaj na sinergiji klasičnog slikarskog s novim medijima. Relativnost vremena i prostora, njihova ispreplettenost stvara namjerne zabune u prijenosima jednog medija u drugi, slike s ekrana ili fotografije, u slikarstvo. To je svjesna slikarska simulacija binarnog koda, multiplikacija gradbenih elemenata s odmijerenom dozom humora i dosjetke poput, u astronautske odjela odjevenih anđela koji slobodno lebde svemirskim prostranstvom odašiljući prema nama „ljudavne strelice“ novih poticaja koji nas gone da poput Milića uvijek istražujemo dalje. A njegov austrijski kolega Peter Huemer, jedan je od umjetnika zaslužnih za promoviranje inovacija tehničkih medija, tj. za njihove implementacije u suvremenem nu umjetničku produkciju, tj. u produkciju kopografije kao jednakovrijednog umjetničkog medija klasičnim grafičkim tehnikama. Koristeći se kreativnim mogućnostima fotokopiranja, manipulirajući procesima skeniranja, negira funkciju stroja i stvara samosvojno umjetničko djelo. Popularan motiv anđela čuvara služi Huemeru kao predložak kojeg multiplicira, modificira, čineći namjerne distorzije, nebrojene mogućnosti novih kreativnih pogleda na naš pojavnji svijet.

Iluziju iluzije kako bi možda život učinio ljepšim?

Sanda Stanaćev Bajzek

Art – a reflection of reality or an illusion?

Everything affects art. Strong influence of social powers, artistic dependence on models and predecessors is unavoidable, art depends on the specifics of the tradition, philosophy and, naturally, religion. At least, that is how we are taught or inclined to think. But what if that is an illusion and the paintings are precisely what shapes our thoughts, just like our subconscious forms our consciousness. Because, some claim, what the artist explores and represents in a chosen medium is not a reflection of the claimed world, but our reaction to that world. Thus we think that our visual world is determined by our earthly, physical experience. What if all events and objects we encounter in our real life just a result of a vision and emotion within us? Used to the idea that images and emotions are initiated by the phenomenal world, real and material, we are deprived of the truth that we ourselves visualise that world in our mind – the centre of vision. If reality is in the eyes of the beholder, or if we are directly involved in the creation of our reality, we must be aware of the power of spiritual manifestations to which art belongs and which spring from associations, manipulations and simulations of that rational perception the artists bring, newly discovered, before us as their own newly created reality. Twenty-nine of them created that magnificent illusion during two gatherings on Rab in the first instance, in June and September, and later in Wagrain, new international location of the colony held for the second time (the first time was in 2014) in an Austrian Alpine tourist heaven – hotel Edelweiss. Representing, as always, Croatian and international fine arts production with the aim of emphasizing art as an important cultural segment of a tourist promotion of one's country and acting through three gatherings and four exhibitions (two in Croatia, one in Austria, and one in Makek Gallery, presenting a selection of works and promoting a catalogue of artists), Art Colony Paradiso invited ten artists to this year's first gathering, artists who used the opportunity of working on the island of Rab to enjoy its magical aria, pearly sea and rich cultural heritage. Croatian artists were joined by artists from Italy, Macedonia and Slovakia.

At the start of her painting, there is always a drawing. With a confident contour line, Nina Brkić forms her main motif – the female nude that in its multiplication and pure scale of primary colours gets transformed into her recognisable idiom. Nude human body restrained the playful coloristic gesture of Marija Kondres, too. Out of the vibrant surface, shaped by colour and rimmed by black, she creates an anthropomorphic form, materialising the natural an intimate poetic experience into a integral painting. While the man and the woman in Marija's work are caught in an intimate moment, in the painting of Nikolina Ivezić they are part of the conventional story, literally restrained within the bounds of the social, the sexual, and now also the historical. That is to say, the paintings are part of the more recent “nautical” cycle, created on the models of old 1920s photographs, made in her recognisable technique of painted lined Styrofoam as pop-art critiquing pieces by means of which she continues to question numerous socially imposed stereotypes. By means of self-identification through class, national or ethical alliance, Gordana Vrencoska also explores socio-psychological models in her artistic practice. In her paintings, we can clearly see the symbols of femininity – the ovary-shaped and uterus-shaped forms she finds in folk costumes, ennobling them by traditional embroidery and trying to answer the question of what defines her as a woman and a human being within the personal and collective systems of values. Respecting a person according to who she or he is, ensuring a dignified existence for everyone and encouragement of humanness and empathy for other people is what emanates from the work of the Macedonian visual artist Hristijan Sanev. Continuing to write for Rab diptych significant messages in Braille script, he dedicates it to a graffiti found on a building in Rab: “Years go by – love remains”. Another three foreign painters recorded Rab impressions: the German artist Tanja Zimmermann, the Slovak Jan Fekete and the Italian Luca di Castri. The paintings of Tanja Zimmermann are a visual story about her six-day stay on Rab. As one of the most inventive and most interesting artists in her country, Tanja’s work is not characterised by a spectacular quality, but by a restrained, poetical feature claiming our attention with its excellence. Her drawing traces are subtle and fragile, transparent watercolour layers of paint in the coming together of the blue and the red colour. On the other hand, through a marvellous sepia, Jan Fekete transforms a Rab street, as a segment of the typical and the local, into a scene of an ever-lasting, universal place, both real and non-existing at the same time. With his impressions from Rab, Fekete confirms his position at the very top of Slovakian painting. Luca di Castri is an extravagant artistic figure whose painting bears clear references to theatrical scenography and introduces metaphysical theatre, existentialist scenes of loneliness and emptiness of the modern man into the field of the painting, as well as the possibility of finding places of quiet recluse that, like Rab itself, lie in some mysterious tranquillity and centuries-long silence. A silence disturbed only by crickets or bees, which have like some wondrous unexpected motif besieged the painting by the young Lav Paripović. Choosing the sculpture of St Christopher (the work of our eminent sculptor Kuzma Kovacić) as an object of his inspiration, and placing it in the context of his own recent opus that compares artistic creation to the zealous activity of bees, as well as identifying himself with this diligent animal, Lav collects and reworks objects and phenomena from his surroundings, projecting them onto the canvas as a new, high quality and precious outcome. One such outcome is presented by Giuseppe Galli Pope, an Italian artist who started, at the end of 1980s, questioning the power and potential of the basic artistic elements – the form and colour and the relationship between formats. The light shines and the matter pulses through the fine layers and visible coatings of red on an underpainting of blue, so the painting outgrows its own format and form and becomes a body, a live chromatic object.

The second gathering held in September seemed to announce the end of the summer and extreme temperatures with a quieter and contemplative artistic bunch. Nine artists paid their artistic pilgrimage to Rab, recording for posterity their stay and their encounter with Rab's architecture and its Mediterranean joys on canvas, paper or sculpture in their own, by now recognisable manner, allowing themselves an occasional plunge into the realms of the unexpected, personally unexplored, but artistically exciting and potent. In her representations of shadows, Ivana Ožetski is concerned with abolishing the distinctions among media, an illusion offered to us as reality. To search for the meaning in "shadow painting", which takes us from the spatial and three-dimensionality towards the plane and two-dimensionality, is an idea whose essence lies in its realisation, its conceptuality. Although photography is always a template for the painting, the emphasis is on the conceptual, while the technique and the material are just raw resources that get modelled in ecstatic moments of observing the world and life around us. The atmosphere and scents of Rab's gardens served as a trigger of inspiration that revealed to us the lyrically refined coloristic gamut of subdued pastel nuances in the work of Marija Galic. Her wisterias are reflections of the soul and the spirit, of her subtle cognitions, moods, emotions and thoughts. A walk through the gardens of Rab is really a walk through Marija's worlds – her consciousness and the subconscious brought into the medium of painting by an abstract and sensitive expression. One of our most exceptional colourists, Toni Franović, a painter who does not hesitate to grapple with the Mediterranean, which he passionately loves in his painting and which he subdues to a colourist gesture restrained only by nature itself, has chosen a recognisable material segment of Rabveduta ennobled by the typical Mediterranean flora – a giant agave, shrouded within the colourist structure of architectural elements in the mystical light of the full Moon. A delightful colourist who builds his painting exclusively by paint, the Nepalese artist Keshav Malla, brings to Croatia a flurry of colour and form, a spiral labyrinth where the conscious and the unconscious gesture – complex abstract curves – intertwine, absorbing and spitting out in its own hurricane swirl the pure and harmonic colour, the colour that for Mallu represents the life itself, and that aims to awaken in us the joy created by the looking at the essence of beauty. The underwater nudes by Zlatko Kauzlaric Atač are the proof that art can help us see the world differently, make it better, dive under the surface and touch the marvels of our own being unimaginable by sight alone, free ourselves, dissolve, open up. In this long-time artistic fascination, he has replaced his recognisable and dominant drawing with a pure painterly treatment of the motif, with a colourist smudge of unconstrained paint and a gesture not suppressed by figurative anthropomorphic form. Body as the structural form, but without identity, a headless, boneless, padded doll as a figure from some wondrous theatre, out of which screams a longing for life – that is the sculpture of Antonija Balić Šimrak. A dichotomy of humanity, duality of body and soul, of reason and emotion, constitutes the doctoral thesis of this young artist, emphasizing in its title, Half of Life, the time of maturity and a wiser perception of one's self. A product of the fear of losing one's self, a call to purification, to being free. Severed from the puppet's strings, she makes a bold step into life and the beauty just discovered. And the beauty of living is for some contained in leisure, in lazily enjoying the sunshine, in discovering small, everyday things – in the lightness of being. Ivan Marković multiplies the motif of towels, making the scene playful by applying different, but tonally finely tuned colour scheme and contrasting with the black background this banal motif that becomes precisely a witness of the significance of the concept, in contrast to the currently popular, although slightly trivialised skill (which Marković undoubtedly has). The work of the visual artist Ivona Verbanac is characterised by the idea and the freedom and various possibilities of turning it into reality. Although she presents her artistic vocation through performance pieces and multimedia installations, this woman from Istria decided to paint while on Rab. Far from "traditional" painting, though, or by "traditional" means. She uses pieces of broken plates as patterns for prints for constructing her painterly arrangements on the canvas – a chipped neon constellation on a black background of the night sky. A rich Rab production by a young painter from Beograd, Marko Davidović, is presented by his Silence, a painting that is the essence of almost all creative philosophy of the painting that the critical theory attempted to explain by Solve et Coagula. Breaking apart, analysing, dissection of form in order to establish new relationships and a purified form in the field of the painting. This is a powerful expressionist gesture, a dual creation in the form of the figurative and the utterly abstract, an informel questioning of the possibilities of the painting, followed by a stillness in a coloristically calm, but texturally vibrant white field and four red vertical accents like four accords of the magical "silence of Rab".

The ACP organised this year's third gathering at a new location – hotel Edelweiss in Wagrain. The collaboration between this Austrian pearl of a hotel with Croatian Paradiso – "the house of art, food and wine", has created new, inspiring possibilities, offering its natural resources to artistic exploitation. Twelve artists gathered from five European countries, creating interesting works in the interaction of their artistic personae and presenting them in the exhibition show organised on the last day of their stay in Austria. Zlatko Kauzlaric Atač and Antonija Balić Šimrak were there again, slightly modifying their recent works and adapting them for Austrian presentation, or, like Atač, enriching them with more laid back Wagraincroquis and likeable portraits. Antonija personalised her headless doll with female attributes, supplementing her presentation with an ink-jet print on canvas fixed on a padded base. Those pillow-like and duvet-like forms bear clear associations to sleeping premises, to "places for dreaming" where we can, free and accepted, imagine life to be beautiful. "Life is Beautiful" was the title of the Austrian gathering, encouraging the artists to create in that environment. Stano Buban encapsulates the potent beauty of the surroundings in an animalistic narrative in which his already recognisable motif of a bull finds its place. As a kind of author's alter ego, it is a permanent guest in his paintings, described by Slovakian critics as anintentionaloverly sweet reaction to contemporary reality, but also as evidence of his artistic mastery, traditional approach to painting, technique and the idea itself. Justyna Miklasiewicz finds her motif in a far tamer bestiary. She now replaces human body as the main motif of her paintings with the shape of a noble animal. A pair of horses caught at leisure in the hotel ranch is her contribution to the beauty of life in Wagrain. A reflection of idyllic nature and our peaceful coexistence with it, or of the power of the mountain massifs that Justyna sketches into her canvases. For Andrea Bratošova, hotel Edelweiss is a meditative space, a place where the power of nature and artistic elegance meet in a relaxing silence, providing an opportunity for divine contemplation, which the author emphasizes by her choice of colour. The frame of the painting by young Croatian painter Fran Makek is defined by the view of an impressive Alpine landscape. His water-colours with finely structured texture do not isolate any panoramic feature, but are imprints of pure ambiance and emotion heightened by the artist residing in nature. Absolutely compatible with Makek, Marija Vuletić seems to almost make the idyllic quality of Wagrain scene banal. Defined by the view of the space around her, the external and internal space of her current residence is interwoven in the scene in her water-colours, treated with the same value and a free morphology dissolved under the brush of nonchalant youth. Because, as she herself puts it: "This is not rain, this is my youth". Structure and colour, freed from any association with objective reality, persistent practice of painting, transference of creative energy that does not cease with the act of finishing – that is the painting signed by Johann Julian Taupe. That is the painting he draws from his internal source enriched with emotional and intellectual abilities for grappling with reality. It is a work based on the inner law of the painting itself, utterly independent of the objective visible world. The New painting, pioneered in Austria by Taupe, among others, within which both drama and harmony take place, a magic of colour in the uniqueness of the white.

And the "female torso" by Antonija Balić Šimrak is not a lonely form usurping the exhibition space of the hotel from the two-dimensional world of the painting. Rebecca Glavan Glušac plaits her three-dimensional floral wire forms with wool, leaving the creative process visible, as well as the potential of the wire as a material she uses to achieve the quality of a three-dimensional drawing. Traditional crafts – crocheting, knitting, weaving as typically "feminine principles" of activity, show their effectiveness and aesthetic dimension even in the art form of sculpture. A Venetian sculptor and conceptual artist Alessandro Cadamuro reaches for contemporary materials, using the possibilities offered by new technologies and remaining in the inspirational and potent medium of glass, which is his recognisable "trademark". His Poevetri – poetic glass – undoubtedly represent poetic visions created in glass, often supplemented by sound, and with engravings he impresses into glass surfaces, scratching his own verses, significant words, letters or signs and other forms that break up linear structures and construct new shapes. Appropriation of new technologies and the possibilities of computer programmes, digital print and digital photography has become an unavoidable element of artistic practice of many visual artists. Zdravko Milić formulates his point of view and a critical stance towards the social reality by structuring his expression on the synergy of the traditional painting with new media. The relativity of time and space and their interweaving creates intentional confusions when transferring one medium into another, such as a picture from a screen or a photograph into painting. That constitutes a conscious painterly simulation of the binary code, a multiplication of structural elements with a certain amount of humour and witticism, like the angels dressed in space suits, floating freely in outer space and sending “love arrows” of new encouragement for us to keep exploring, like Milić himself. And his Austrian colleague Peter Huemer, one of the artists who promote innovation from technical media and their implementation in the contemporary artistic production, or the making of copygraphy as an art medium equally valid as traditional graphical techniques. Using the creative possibilities of photocopy, manipulating the scanning processes, he negates the function of the machine and creates an autonomous work of art. Huemer uses the popular motif of guardian angels as a template which he then multiplies and modifies, introducing intentional distortions and numerous possibilities for new creative perspectives on our phenomenal world. An illusion of an illusion, to make the life look more beautiful perhaps?

Sanda Stanaćev Bajzek

Zlatko Kauzlaric Atač

Rođen je 1945. godine u Koprivnici, Hrvatska. Poslije završene gimnazije upisuje se na ALU u Zagrebu. Za vrijeme studija uključuje se u rad Studentskog eksperimentalnog kazališta. Diplomira u klasi prof. Miljenka Stančića i odmah postaje suradnikom majstorske radionice prof. Krste Hegedušića, a 1973. godine postaje asistent na ALU u Zagrebu gdje i sada radi kao redoviti profesor, a jedno vrijeme i dekan. Uz slikarstvo i grafiku intenzivno se bavi scenografijom i kostimografijom, a surađivaо je na stotinjak kazališnih projekata u zemlji i inozemstvu te nekoliko filmskih i televizijskih. Autor je i nekoliko likovnih intervencija u javnim prostorima. Godine 1996. izlazi mu monografija koju potpisuje TonkoMaroević. Dobitnik je mnogih nagrada za slikarstvo i scenografiju te ordena „Danice Hrvatske s likom Marka Marulića“ za zasluge u kulturi. Atačevo egzistiranje u poljima slikarskog obilježili su radovi – oni prvi nastali za njegova djelovanja unutar grupe „Biafra“ (od 1970.), portreti poznatih osoba u izražajnom pokretu, aktovi te brojni autoaktivi. Od samih početaka autor baštini osjećaj za ekspresiju trenutka, ritam, pokret te karakterističnu umjetničku angažiranost. Trenutna slikarska preokupacija aktovi su uronjeni u vodu u kojima crtež biva zamijenjen dominacijom čistog slikarskog tretiranja podloge kolorom, otkrivajući svu virtuznost vrsnog majstora koji ekspresiju ne zatomljuje figurativnim izričajem.

Austrija – Wagrain: „Portrait Isabelle“, pastel na papiru, 58x42 cm

Born in Koprivnica in 1945. After completing secondary education he enrolls in the Academy of Fine Arts in Zagreb. During his studies he takes part in the activities of the Experimental Student Theatre. He graduated in the class of Professor Miljenko Stančić and immediately joined the master workshop of Professor Krsto Hegedušić. In 1973 he became an assistant professor at the Academy of Fine Arts in Zagreb where he still works, and has been a dean for a period of time. As well as in painting and graphics, he works extensively in set and costume design, and has worked on a hundred of theatre projects in Croatia and abroad, as well as on a number of film and television projects. He has authored several artistic interventions in public spaces. In 1996 TonkoMaroević published Atač's monograph. Atač has received numerous painting and set design awards, as well as the Order of Danica Hrvatska for his contributions to cultural heritage. His presence in painting has been marked by a range of artworks – from early works created during his activity in Biafra Group (since 1970), to portraits of famous people engaged in expressive movement, to nudes and numerous self-portraits in the nude. From the very outset this painter has possessed a sense for the expression of the moment, rhythm and movement, and a typical artistic commitment. Atač's current painterly preoccupations are nudes submerged in water, which reveal how drawing is replaced by the domination of a purely painterly treatment of the canvas, revealing the virtuosity of the eminent master who does not confine the expression to representational formulations.

Rođen je 1961. godine u Sečovcama, u Slovačkoj. Diplomirao je na Odjelu za slikarstvo na Akademiji likovnih umjetnosti u Bratislavi (1980-1986). Trenutno je aktivan kao predavač na Akademiji likovnih umjetnosti u Bratislavi. Predstavlja se samostalno ili u sklopu skupnih izložbi u Slovačkoj, Nacionalnoj galeriji u Skopju, Makedonija; Nacionalnoj galeriji portreta u Londonu, Engleska; Wilmingtonu, SAD; Frankfurtu, Njemačka. Dobitnik je prve nagrade „Towards of culture and solidarity“ u Limassoulu, Cipar. Član je Slovačkog udruženja vizualnih umjetnika. Živi u Bratislavi. Buban je jedan od najznačajnijih slovačkih slikarskih osobnosti 80-ih. Prvo razdoblje njegovog rada povezano je s neoekspresionističkom stilizacijom novog slikarstva, da bi se koncem 80-ih približilo apstrahiranom izričaju, koji kulminira u ciklusu crno-bijelih slika. Trenutno njegov slikarski izraz sladunjavci je odgovor na svijet oko nas predstavljan starim tehnikama i idejama.

Stano was born in Sečovce, Slovakia, in 1961. He graduated from the Department of Painting at the Academy of Fine Arts in Bratislava (1980-1986), where he is now teaching. He presented his work in individual and group exhibitions in Slovakia, at the National Gallery in Skopje, Macedonia, National Portrait Gallery in London, in Wilmington, USA, in Frankfurt, Germany. He won the first place award Towards a Europe of Culture and Solidarity in Limassol, Cyprus. Stano is a member of the Slovakian association of visual artists and he lives in Bratislava. He was one of the most significant painterly personas in 1980s Slovakia. The first stage of his work was related to neo-expressionistic stylisation of new painting, and by the end of 1980s he embraced abstract expression culminating in a cycle of black-and-white paintings. His current style is a overly sweet reaction to the world around us represented by old techniques and ideas.

Marija Galić

Rođena je 1962. godine u Bosanskom Brodu, B i H. Diplomirala je slikarstvo u Ljubljani u klasi profesora Mladena Jernejca. Dobitnica je dekanskog priznanja. Sudjelovala je na više likovnih kolonija u Hrvatskoj, Sloveniji te BiH, te projektima Artist of globe, "Voda, izvor života" i "Tesla". Do sada je priredila šest samostalnih izložbi te sudjelovala na mnogim skupnim izložbama. Članica je HULULK-a, a živi i djeluje u Zagrebu u status slobodne umjetnice. Svoju stilistiku razvija u prostoru apstraktne umjetnosti, dodirujući u svom nepredmetnom slikarstvu asocijativnim formama slutnju „literarnog“. Izražava se u omanjim zaokruženim ciklusima, u kojima nerijetko tematizira određenu emociju, duhovno stanje, ono nevidljivo što tek unutar svoje slike nastoji učiniti vidljivim.

,Ples ljubavnika, vjetra i glicinija“, akril na platnu, 80x80 cm

Marija was born in Bosanski Brod, Bosnia and Herzegovina, in 1962. She graduated in painting in Ljubljana in the class of prof. Mladen Jernejc. She has received a Dean's Award. She has participated in several art colonies in Croatia, Slovenia and Bosnia and Herzegovina, as well as the projects Artist of the Globe, Water, the Source of Life and Tesla. So far, she has organised six individual shows and taken part in many group ones. Marija is a member of HULULK and lives and works in Zagreb as a freelance artist. She develops her stylistics in the realm of abstract art, touching by her non-object art upon the hints of the literary with her associative forms. She creates in small rounded cycles, often thematising some emotion, a mental state, the invisible that she aims to make visible within her painting.

Nikolina Ivezic

Rođena je 1970. godine u Zagrebu, Hrvatska, gdje završava i Školu primijenjene umjetnosti i dizajna. Potom upisuje slikarstvo na AIU u Zagrebu, na kojoj diplomira 1998. u klasi prof. Eugena Kokota. Izlagala je na tridesetak samostalnih i stotinu skupnih izložba u zemlji i inozemstvu. Dobitnica je nekoliko nagrada kao i 1. nagrada DAAK-a, Calsberg. Bavi se konceptualnom umjetnošću, uređenjem interijera, ilustracijom, uvek društveno angažirane tematike – propitivanjem, tj. analiziranjem šablonu koje nameće društvo, kritikom globalizacije, mass-medija i komercijalizacije religije. Pop-art i golotinju koristi kako bi karikirala društvo. Proslavila su je uređenja ambijenata zagrebačke Tvornice, kafića Melin, kafića Filozofskog fakulteta, a prepoznatljiva je po reljefima žena s velikim grudima izrađenim tehnikom obojenog kaširanog stiropora i tankih metalnih pločica. Članica je HDLU-a, HULULK-a i ZUH-a. Živi i radi u Zagrebu.

Nikolina was born in Zagreb in 1970, where she graduated from the School of Applied Arts and Design. She took her degree from the Academy of Fine Arts in Zagreb in 1998 under the tutorship of prof. E. Kokot. She has exhibited her work in about thirty individual and a hundred group exhibitions nationally and internationally. She has received several awards including the first prize in Carlsberg DAAK competition. She makes conceptual art, interior design and illustrations, always addressing socially related issues – exploring and analysing the conventions imposed by the society, critiquing globalisation, mass media and the commercialisation of religion. She uses pop-art and nudity to caricature the society. She is famous for designing the interiors of Tvorница, Melin and the Faculty of Philosophy's café. Her work is recognised by reliefs of female figures with big breasts executed in painted lined Styrofoam and thin metal plates. She is a member of HDLU, HULULK and ZUH associations. She lives and works in Zagreb.

Marija Dujmović Kondres

Rođena je 1969. godine u Ljubuškom, BiH. Likovnu akademiju u Sarajevu završila je 1991. studirajući prve dvije godine na Corcoran School of Art, SAD. Sudjelovala je na više značajnih skupnih izložbi te održala samostalne izložbe u Hrvatskoj i inozemstvu: SAD, Jordanu, Estoniji,... Članica je HDLU-a od 1996. godine. Dobitnica je UNESCO Aschberg stipendije za slikarstvo 1996. godine. Živi i stvara u Zagrebu. U svom slikarstvu posvaja motiv, slikarski ga analizira i traži njegov sukus ljepote. Gradnju djela najčešće provodi preglednom konstrukcijom cjeline i svih segmenata, rasterom u kojem sve čestice zadržavaju čitkost. U svom slikarskom izražavanju odlučuje se za slobodnu gestu, izražajnost poteza, dobivajući time površinu punu vibrancnosti.

Marija was born in Ljubuški, Bosnia and Herzegovina, in 1969. She graduated from the Academy of Fine Arts in Sarajevo in 1991, spending the first two years at Corcoran School of Art in the USA. She has exhibited her work in several major group exhibitions, as well as in individual shows in Croatia, USA, Jordan, Estonia and others. Marija has been a member of HDLU association since 1996. She was a holder of UNESCO Aschberg scholarship for painting in 1996. She lives and works in Zagreb. In her work, she adopts a motif, analyses it as a painter and searches for its essence of beauty. Mostly she constructs her work by visibly structuring the whole and the segments, by creating a raster in which all particles keep their visibility. In her painting she relies on free gesture, expressiveness of stroke, resulting in a surface full of vibrations.

Keshav Malla

Rođen je 1944.godine u Kathmanduu, Nepal. Diplomirao je na Likovnoj akademiji u Kathmanduu, a kao stipendista odlazi u Pariz u kojem živi i stvara od 1967. godine. Do sada je održao gotovo pedeset samostalnih izložbi i gotovo stotinu skupnih kako u Francuskoj, rodnom Nepalu tako i u svijetu: Indiji, SSSR-u, Belgiji, Italiji, Njemačkoj, Velikoj Britaniji, Španjolskoj, Rumunjskoj, Makedoniji, Egiptu, Maleziji, Tajvanu, Singapuru, Čileu, SAD-u,... Participira na brojnim simpozijima, likovnim skupovima, na kojima sudjeluje i kao pozvani, počasni gost izlagач brojnih umjetničkih salona, Bijenala i Trijenala diljem svijeta. Autor je ilustracija brojnih umjetničkih i društvenih publikacija. Od 1969. godine njegova djela nalaze se u zbirkama mnogih muzeja, kao i u privatnim zbirkama u Francuskoj i zemljama svijeta poput Royal Nepal Academy, Kathmandu, Nacionalne zaklade za suvremenu umjetnost, Parizu; Muzej suvremene umjetnosti, Seoul, Južna Koreja; Muzej suvremene umjetnosti, Eivissa, Španjolska; Victoria and Albert Museum, London, Engleska. Apstrakcija kao da je izmišljena za ovog slikara. On treba samo boju, prostor i nedefiniranu formu u neprestanom kretanju. „Boja je energija, energija je boja. Boja je moj život“, rekao je.

Keshav was born in Kathmandu, Nepal, in 1944. He graduated from the Academy of Fine Arts in Kathmandu and left for Paris as a scholarship holder, to live and work there since 1967. He has had almost fifty individual about a hundred group exhibition shows so far – in France, in his home country of Nepal, as well as in India, USSR, Belgium, Italy, Germany, Great Britain, Spain, Romania, Macedonia, Egypt, Malesia, Taiwan, Singapore, Chile and the US. He has participated in numerous symposia and art gatherings, often invited as a guest of honour and an exhibitor of numerous art salons, biennials and triennials across the world. Keshav is the author of illustrations in various artistic and social publications. Since 1969, his works have found their place in art collections of many museums, as well as private collections in France and elsewhere, for instance in the Royal Nepal Academy in Kathmandu, the Contemporary Art National Foundation in Paris, the Museum of Contemporary Art in Seoul, South Korea, the Museum of Contemporary Art in Eivissa, Spain, the Victoria and Albert Museum in London, UK. Abstract art seems to be invented for this artist. All he needs is paint, space and an undefined form in constant motion. “Paint is energy, energy is paint. Paint is my life”, he said.

Lav was born in Zagreb, Croatia, in 1989. In 2009, he completed the School of Applied Arts and Design and enrolled in the Academy of fine Arts in Zagreb, taking his MA in painting in 2016 in the class of prof. Zoltan Novak. He specialised as a theatre painter at the Croatian National Theatre in Zagreb. He participated in jury biennial exhibitions in Croatia, as well as in Macedonia. He has received commendations from the 3rd Biennial of Painting jury and graduated with cum laude. So far, he has only had three individual shows, making this young graduate painter a promising artist, interesting to both the audiences and the critics, an artist whose cycle on bees introduced that valuable species, removed from the swarm and the beehive, into the contemporary bestiary of Zagreb's street art.

Sting me if you can, mixed media on canvas, 90x70 cm

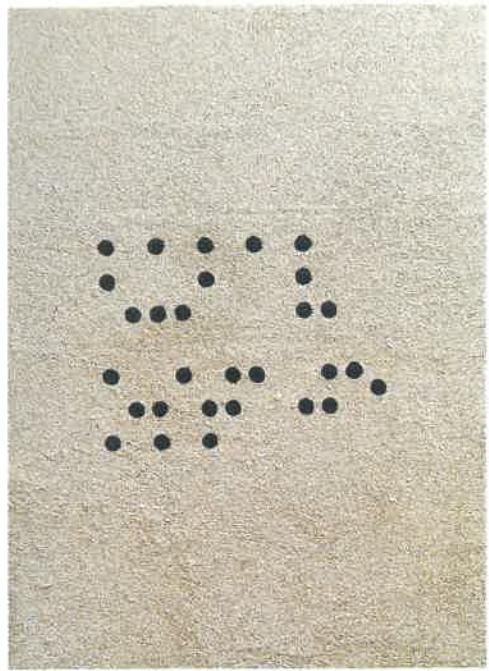

Rođen kao Giuseppe Galli 1942. godine u Portogruaru (Ve), Italija. Od 1957. do 1960. Pohađa Umjetnički licej u Rimu kod slikara/prof. Montenarinia, a potom preselivši se u Fano upisuje Umjetničku školu koju završava 1962. Vrativši se u rodni kraj, u Veneciji pohađa satove akta i graviranja kod Magnolata. Godine 1968. stjeće diplomu Likovne akademije (accademia di Belle Arti) u Veneciji. Ovo razdoblje obilježili su sklonost za slikarstvo materije, odnosno informela. Boravak u Parizu polovicom 60-ih obilježavaju pak utjecaji konstruktivizma i op-arta po uzoru na Maljevića i Vasarelyja, koji završavaju Popeovom prikljanjanju slikarstvu „obojenog polja“ u 70-ima. Strukturalizam, kontrolirana gesta i monokromi osamdesetih kulminiraju u kromatskim tijelima (1989./92.). Slikarstvo mu danas obilježavaju površine čiste boje u kojoj se reflektira svjetlost s interventnim pomacima, perforacijama, tj. usjedcanjima druge boje i asimetrijama u formi. U najnovijim radovima još je više sofisticiran, dovodeći svoj duktus do perfekcije, u tretiranju podloge kolorom i formom koji prelazi samu dvodimenzionalnost slike. Jedan je od najkreativnijih predstavnika analitičkog slikarstva stekavši pozornost od kritike i kolezionara u Italiji i Europi već 70-ih od kada niže brojne izložbenе projekte izlažući na gotovo sto samostalnih i preko stotinu skupnih izložbi te sudjeluje na važnim skupovima i simpozijima. Godine 2009. Objavljena mu je monografija, još jedna potvrda stvaralačke dosljednosti koja ne pribjegava imitacijama i utjecajima trendova. Živi i radi u Portogruaru.

„Pittura rossa a Rab I i II“ (Crvena slika), akril na platnu, 100x50 cm (x2)

Pope was born as Giuseppe Galli in Portogruaro (Veneto), Italy, in 1942. He attended the Artistic Boarding School in Rome from 1957 to 1960, working with the painter and Professor Montenarini, and then moved to Fano where he completed the School of Arts in 1962. Upon returning to his home town, he took classes in nude painting and engraving with Magnolato, and in 1968 graduated from the Academy of Fine Arts (Accademia di Belle Arti) in Venice. This creative period was marked by a tendency towards matter and informel painting. Staying in Paris in mid-sixties, he was influenced by constructivism and op art, with Maljević and Vasarely as models, which made him embrace colour field painting in the 1970s. Structuralism, controlled gesture and monochromes of the 80s culminated in chromatic bodies (1989-92). His painting today is characterised by areas of pure colour reflecting light in interpolated shifts, perforations, or incisions of different colour and asymmetrical form. His most recent works are even more sophisticated, his mannerism brought to perfection in the treatment of the base with colour and form that transcend the two-dimensionality of the canvas. Pope is one of the most creative representatives of analytical painting, attracting attention from critics and art collectors in Italy and Europe as early as 1970s. He has participated in numerous exhibitions since then, displaying his works in almost a hundred individual and over a hundred group shows and taking part in important gatherings and symposia. His monograph, another confirmation of his creative consistency that does not resort to imitation and trendy influences, was published in 2009. He lives and works in Portogruaro.

Anja – years go by, but love remains, diptych, mixed media, 80x60 cm (x2)

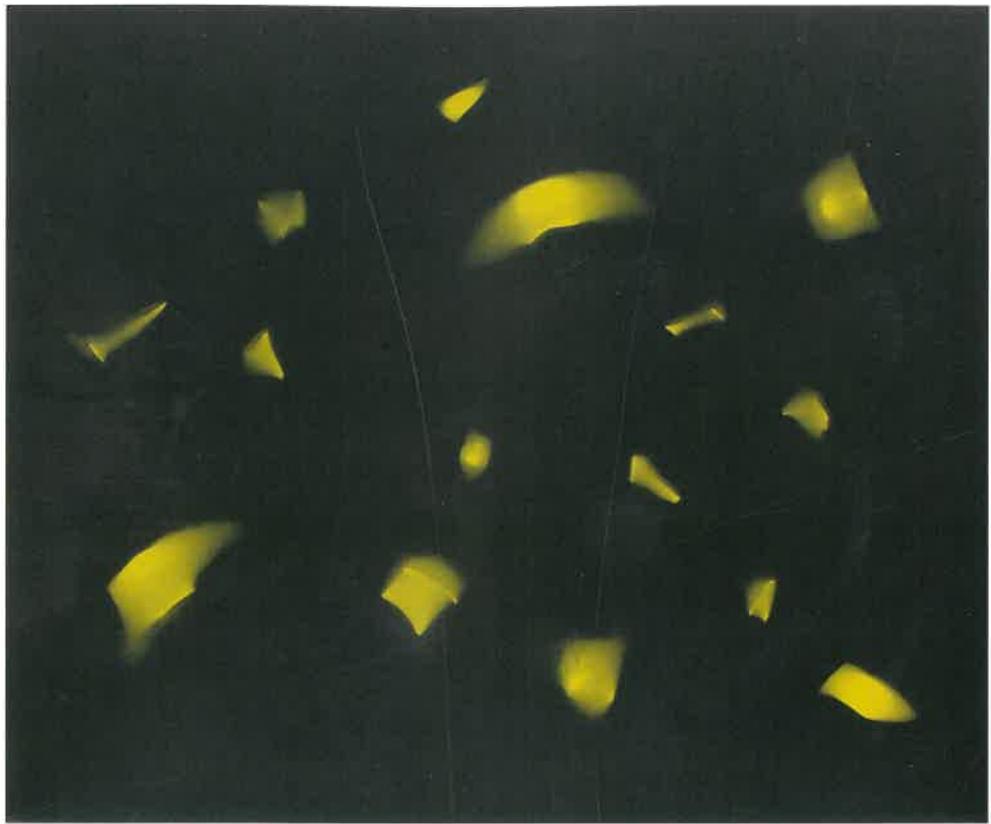

Rođen je 1954. godine u Villachu, Austrija. Diplomirao je 1981. na Akademiji likovnih umjetnosti u Beču u klasi prof. Maxa Weilera, a 1981. – 1983. je na specijalki kod prof.A. Rainera na istoj akademiji, a 1984. usavršava slikarstvo i kao državni stipendist. Međunarodna iskustva stječe boraveći 1984. na rezidenciji u Ženevi, 2002. financira ga Fundacija Valparaiso, Major, Almeria, a 2011. Koruška zajednica stipendira mu boravak u Parizu. Godine 2014. pobjednik je Volksbank Art Prize "Kunst.Volksbank.Kärnten". Godine 2003. izlaže na Venecijanskom bijenalu, a predstavlja se brojnim samostalnim i skupnim izložbama u Austriji, Njemačkoj, Sloveniji, Italiji, Španjolskoj, Poljskoj, Češkoj, Srbiji i Hrvatskoj, ali i Rusiji i Indiji. Živi i djeluje u Beču. Jedan je od pionira „Nove slike“ koja 80-ih istovremeno zahvaća Italiju, Njemačku i Austriju. Njegova slika rezultat je procesualnosti, neprestanog ispitivanja slikarskih mogućnosti - struktura i boja oslobođena svake asocijacije na objektivni svijet.

„Espa 1“, kombinirana teh. na platnu, 60x80 cm

Johann was born in Villach, Austria, in 1954. He graduated from the Academy of Fine Arts in Vienna in the class of prof. Max Weiler in 1981. He specialised at the same Academy with prof. A. Rainer from 1981 to 1983, and in 1984 he specialises in painting as a state studentship holder. He gained international experience through a Geneva residence programme in 1984, Valparaiso Foundation funding scheme, Major, Almeria in 2002, and a period in Paris subsidised by the Carinthia community. In 2014, he was awarded Volksbank Art Prize Kunst.Volksbank.Kärnten. He exhibited his works at Venice Biennial in 2003, as well as in many individual and group shows in Austria, Germany, Slovenia, Italy, Spain, Poland, Czech Republic, Serbia, Croatia, Russia and India. He lives and works in Vienna. He is one of the founders of the New painting, spreading through Italy, Germany and Austria in 1980s. His painting is a result of a process, of a continual questioning of painterly possibilities – a structure and colour freed of any association to the objective reality. Design there.

Tanja Zimmermann

Rođena je 1960. godine u Pirni, a odrasla u Rostoku, Njemačka. Nakon srednje škole koju pohađa u Hamburgu, studirala je slikarstvo na ALU u Dresdenu 1981. – 1987. u klasi prof. Gerharda Kettnera, a magistrirala pod mentorstvom prof. Johannesa Heisiga. Dugo vremena živjela je Berlinu, a danas u pitoresknom Klein Warinu (Nordwestmecklenburg). Brojne stipendije kao oblici umjetničkog usavršavanja odvode je u mnoge zemlje poput SAD-a, Gotlanda, Japana i Islanda. Predstavlja se brojnim samostalnim i na mnogim skupnim izložbama diljem svijeta. Nagrađena je Art nagradom grupe osiguravatelja Mecklenburg, Mecklenburg-Vorpommern. Njezina djela nalaze se u mnogim javnim i privatnim likovnim zbirkama u Njemačkoj i inozemstvu. Jedna je od najzanimljivijih umjetnika u svojoj domovini. Njen rad ne resi spektakularnost, već suzdržanost, poetičnost, krhki i zbog medija u kojim djeluje, poput papira, kojeg presavija, kolažira, nerijetko dajući radovima vrlo poetične, metaforične naslove.

„Priča o nekoliko dana u Hrvatskoj 2 i 3“, akril na platnu, 60x82 cm (x2)

Tanja was born in Pirna in 1960 and grew up in Rostock, Germany. She attended the secondary school in Hamburg and studied painting at the Academy of Fine Arts in Dresden in the class of prof. Gerhard Kettner from 1981 to 1987. She did her MA under the mentorship of prof. Johannes Heisig. She has lived in Berlin for a long time and now lives in the picturesque Klein Warin (Nordwestmecklenburg). Through various scholarship programmes as means of professional development, she visited a number of countries, such as the USA, Gotland, Japan and Iceland. She has presented her work in many individual and group shows across the world. She has received an Art Award by the Mecklenburg, Mecklenburg-Vorpommern Group. Her works can be found in numerous public and private art collections in Germany and abroad. Tanja is one of the most interesting artists in her country. Her works are not characterised by spectacularity, but by restraint, poeticism and – because of the medium she uses, such as paper, which she folds and arranges as a collage – a certain fragility, and often by highly poetic, metaphorical titles.
